Mueller, 2010 When he was not writing tragedies acting in his own plays and innovating ancient Greek theater Sophocles served as an ordained priest at a temple for the god of medicine Thinking about the end of life Sophocles began outlining Oedipus the King a tragedy that examines fate death and the mysterious depths of the human psyche themes that he explored in all of his masterful plays Setting the playwright in context to his personal life social historical and political events other writers of influence and more you will quickly gain a deep understanding of Sophocles and the plays he wrote Read Sophocles in an Hour and experience his plays like never before Know the playwright love the play The book features Sophocles in an Hour the main essay of the book Sophocles In a Minute a snapshot chronology A complete listing of Sophocles work A list of Sophocles contemporaries in all fields Excerpts from Sophocles significant works An extensive bibliography grouped according to type of reader An index of the main essay Playwrights in an Hour is a series devoted to the most produced and studied playwrights in the English language from the Greek masters to contemporary writers and written by leading authorities in the field Each short book places the playwright and his or her work in historical social and literary context Carl R Mueller was a professor in the Department of Theater at the University of California Los Angeles from 1967 until his death in 2008 There he directed and taught theater history criticism dramatic literature and playwriting A translator for more than forty years he translated and published works by Brecht Wedekind Hauptmann Hofmannsthal and Hebbel to name a few For Smith and Kraus he translated individual volumes of plays by Schnitzler Strindberg Pirandello Kleist Goethe and Wedekind and all four major Greek playwrights His translations have been performed in every English speaking country and have appeared on BBC TV Never a Dull Moment Arthur 'Ben' Powers, 2024-09-30 Just when you thought everything about the 82nd Airborne Division in World War II had been published author Ben Powers delivers Never a Dull Moment The 80th Airborne Anti Aircraft Artillery Battalion in World War II Excellently researched and written this powerful book fills a critical void about a lesser known but so very important unit in the 82nd Colonel Mark C Plug Vlahos USAF Retired USAAF Troop Carrier and Glider Operations Historian and Author Most modern books and films glamorize World War II airborne soldiers as troopers leaping into the night to descend by parachute into combat Much less often considered is the role of glider forces Glider troops lacked the panache and special distinctions of paratroopers despite their critical role in airborne warfare Likewise World War II ground combat is characterized as a combined arms fight of infantry and armor backed up with field artillery by comparison the role played by specialized supporting arms has received scant attention The 80th AAA Battalion was a glider outfit providing antiaircraft defense and antitank capability to the division s three infantry regiments as battlefield conditions dictated Elements of the battalion fought in Italy Normandy Holland and the Battle of the Bulge making combat glider assaults during both Operation Neptune and Operation Market Garden The exploits of the men of the 80th tend to be obscured as commanders maneuvered the batteries wherever their special skills were needed on the battlefield with no regiment to call a permanent home The 80th AAA battalion was a hybrid unit While its members were considered Coast Artillery the branch responsible for defending ground formations from air attack during WWII they fought alongside parachute and glider infantry most often providing direct fire anti armor support with 57mm 6 pounder cannons While field artillery both parachute and glider established their gunlines some distance behind infantry units to provide indirect fire support the men of the 80th fought face to face with the enemy alongside their infantry brothers North Carolina's Shining Hour David La Vere,Diane Silcox-Jarrett,2005 Drawn from the accounts of those who lived it this powerful chronicle of our state during World War II commemorates the extraordinary actions of ordinary North Carolinians on the battlefield and the home front the indomitable spirit of a patriotic people in a time of peril and sacrifice and the ways in which the Good War changed us forever An extensive collection of photographs the majority of which have never been published complements this snapshot of North Carolina in wartime and honors our states heroic contributions to the nations efforts to secure peace in the world The Johns Hopkins University Circular Johns Hopkins University,1918 Includes University catalogues President s report Financial report registers announcement material etc University Register Johns Hopkins University,1928
