Barry, 1982 Ethics in Criminal Justice Sam S. Souryal, 2014-10-24 Introducing the fundamentals of ethical theory this text exposes the reader to the ways and means of making moral judgments by covering the teachings of the great philosophers sources of criminal justice ethics and unethical patterns in the criminal justice system It is presented from two perspectives a thematic perspective that addresses ethical principles common to all components of the discipline and an area specific perspective that addresses the state of ethics in criminal justice in the fields of policing corrections and probation and parole The fourth edition features expanded discussion of the formula of ethical discretion to enhance students understanding of ethics decision making in real life situations as well as a new chapter on the ethics of loyalty and loyalties in the workplace Ethics and the Autonomy of Philosophy Bernard James Walker, 2014-11-06 In Ethics and the Autonomy of Philosophy Bernard Walker sets out with two objectives First Walker argues that ethics is autonomous as a discipline Oftentimes ethics books from a Christian perspective lean toward grounding ethics in theology or in biblical proof texting Walker departs from this tradition Ethics grounded in theology entails a limited scope for those doing ethics in that the Christian God must be assumed for both Christian and non Christian when at the table of ethical dialogue For the non Christian this loads the dice and shuts down ethical consensus and dialogue if not ethical truth With that said this book does not depart from Christian ethical views on such issues as the sanctity of life antiracism the death penalty the objectivity of ethics and the importance of integrating faith into ethics however Walker does so from a common denominator of philosophy rather than theology Second Walker ventures into the streets and engages the man woman on the streets approach to ethics and ethical decision making He points out the shortcomings of the ubiquitous views of the man woman on the streets viz cultural relativism skepticism and the attitude that ethics is merely a matter of personal choice Doing Environmental Ethics Robert Traer, 2019-08-28 Doing Environmental Ethics explains how we may transform our fossil fuel burning economy which continues to intensify our ecological crisis into a circular and ecological economy The text resists political corruption and personal greed by gleaning ethical insights from our philosophical and religious cultures and by embracing the scientific Gaia hypothesis for the Earth. Its reasoning ascribes intrinsic worth to uplifting duties and rights as well as inspiring virtues and relationships and tests applying these values by predicting the likely consequences of acting on them. It affirms all life has value for itself and that human life also values reasoning and feelings and being ethical. The third edition examines US and international environmental policies through 2018. It analyzes the Trump administration's repudiation of the environmental policies of the Obama administration and its new rules slashing the social costs of climate change. The text reviews a draft UN treaty that would impose human rights and environmental constraints on transnational corporations but it also highlights outstanding examples of corporate upcycling and low carbon innovation. Finally, the third edition explains why food security requires protecting the food sovereignty of farming communities and cooperatives as well as public policies ensuring fair profits for farmers practicing agro ecology.
