Big Valley Football: the Legend of the Badgers Christian Price, 2013-04-16 The City of Big Valley values two things Tires and Football It s a city steeped in pride and tradition It s used to the smell of rubber in the air and winning football teams Change is coming to the city though Brighton Savage III owner of the Savage Tire Plant is a broken man that s lost everything of value to him After suffering loss Brighton entered into a bargain that has lasting consequences for him his company and the city of Big Valley Brighton discovers in his darkest hour redemption can be found in the most unlikely of places Brighton s fate leads him down a path where he encounters a treasure hidden in plain sight Brighton knows a man can live with a broken body but life is a struggle when his spirit is broken He knows every boy whoever grew up within the shadow of his tire plant dreamed of playing city football Not every boy s dream becomes a reality and many boys are eliminated Though being cut from the program year after year many continue to hope next season they ll get the nod Next season they ll get the chance to suit up and play under the lights and represent the pride of their city and school Brighton offers the overlooked boys a chance to live out a dream How much would they sacrifice to step onto a winner s pedestal How high would their spirits soar if they had the chance to play Would the heart of a Badger strike a spark into the lives of the people of Big Valley City Could a team of rejects save both a city and a business man after taking a bitter sip from the cup of despair
