Bridging The Finance Gap In Housing And Infrastructure Urban Management Series:

Bridging the Finance Gap in Housing and Infrastructure Ruth B. McLeod, Kim Mullard, 2006 Bridging the Finance Gap in Housing and Infrastructure documents the radical changes and developments that have taken place in this area over the last 20 years from the perspective of a Northern NGO Homeless International

The New Microfinance Handbook Joanna Ledgerwood, Julie Earne, Candace Nelson, 2013-02-01 The New Microfinance Handbook provides a detailed overview of client financial service needs the various providers and financial products and services that meet those needs and the supporting functions that allow the financial market system to provide better more appropriate financial services to the poor sustainably

Urban Poor Funds Diana Mitlin, 2008

Contested Space Alison Brown, 2006 Based on a research study in four developing cities Dar Es Salaam Kumasi Maseru and Kathmandu Contested Space explores the survival strategies of street traders and their relationships with city governments and examines the practical and policy implications for pro poor street management

Community-Based Adaptation to Climate Change E. Lisa Schipper, Jessica Ayers, Hannah Reid, Saleemul Huq, Atiq Rahman, 2014-01-21 As climate change adaptation rises up the international policy agenda matched by increasing funds and frameworks for action there are mounting questions over how to ensure the needs of vulnerable people on the ground are met Community based adaptation CBA is one growing proposal that argues for tailored support at the local level to enable vulnerable people to identify and implement appropriate community based responses to climate change themselves Community Based Adaptation to Climate Change Scaling it up explores the challenges for meeting the scale of the adaptation challenge through CBA It asks the fundamental questions How can we draw replicable lessons to move from place based projects towards more programmatic adaptation planning How does CBA fit with larger scale adaptation policy and programmes How are CBA interventions situated within the institutions that enable or undermine adaptive capacity Combining the research and experience of prominent adaptation and development theorists and practitioners this book presents cutting edge knowledge that moves the debate on CBA forward towards effective appropriate and scaled up adaptive action

Informality through Sustainability Antonino Di Raimo, Steffen Lehmann, Alessandro Melis, 2020-12-30 Informality through Sustainability explores the phenomenon of informality within urban settlements and aims to unravel the subtle links between informal settlements and sustainability Penetrating its global profile and considering urban informality through an understanding of local implications the authors collectively reveal specific correlations between sites and their local inhabitants The book opposes simplistic calls to legalise informal settlements or to view them as problems to be solved It comes at a time when common notions of informality are being increasingly challenged In 25 chapters the book presents contributions from well known scholars and practitioners whose theoretical or practical work addresses informality and sustainability at various levels from city planning and urban design to public space and architectural education Whilst previous studies on informal settlements have mainly focused on cases in developing countries approaching the topic through social cultural and material dimensions the book explores the concept across a range of contexts including former Communist countries and those in the so called Global North Contributions also explore understandings of informality at various scalar levels region precinct neighbourhood and individual building Thus this work helps reposition informality as a relational concept at various scales of urbanisation This book will be of great benefit to planners architects researchers and policymakers interested in the interplay between informality and sustainability

Confronting the Crisis in Urban Poverty Lucy Stevens, Stuart Coupe, Diana Mitlin, 2006 This book makes a case for approaches to urban development that are locally driven and which complement the vast investments and efforts of slum dwellers themselves It discusses a range of approaches for achieving that focusing on practical experiences and clear lessons for the future

Climate Resilient Urban Areas Rutger de Graaf-van Dinther, 2020-12-17 This book describes the urgent challenge faced by cities worldwide to become resilient to climate change impacts This challenge goes further than the ability to resist the impacts of extreme weather conditions Coping with climate impacts and the ability to recover from them are equally important as well as the capacity to adapt to the effects of climate change and the ability to transform the entire urban system The book explores how the resilience journey for coastal cities in particular encompasses using scientific knowledge but also the knowledge of citizens and practitioners Measures and strategies on different scales are needed from national scale all the way down to neighbourhood street level and building level Representing the holistic nature of climate resilience this collection contains unique insights from leading scientists and practitioners in areas of expertise such as engineering social sciences and urban design It will be a valuable resource for scholars students practitioners and policy makers interested in the development of resilient and sustainable urban environments

The Urban Housing Manual Geoffrey Payne, Michael Majale, 2012-04-27 Red tape is a significant stumbling block to the provision of affordable shelter to the urban poor and indeed slums are largely the result of inappropriate regulatory frameworks This practice oriented manual tackles the issue of regulatory frameworks for urban upgrading and new housing development and how they impact on access to adequate affordable shelter and other key livelihood assets in particular for the urban poor It illustrates two methods for reviewing regulatory frameworks and expounds guiding principles for effecting change informed by action research The downloadable resources contain case studies methods exercises and tools references and website links and a video on reviewing regulatory frameworks

The Urban Housing Manual Geoffrey K. Payne, Michael Majale, 2004 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company
