Audio in Media Stanley R. Alten, 2010 In AUDIO IN MEDIA International Edition Stanley Alten internationally recognized as a scholar and expert in the area of audio production continues to provide students with an introduction to the basic techniques and principles necessary for audio production in today's media. The clear and current illustrations and photos and student friendly writing in Alten's market leading text have helped professors effectively teach this technically based course to thousands of introductory audio production students. Comprehensive, technically accurate and up to date, the text covers informational, perceptual and aesthetic aspects of sound as they apply to each stage of the production process from planning to post production.

Composition for the 21st 1/2 century, Vol 1 Thomas Paul Thesen, 2022-06-29 Composition for the 21st 1/2 century Image Making for Animation focuses on composition and its technical and artistic application in animation illustration games and films. It covers all aspects of design and discusses in detail their artistic applicability and impact on image and narrative. Emphasis is placed on the ability of each aspect to support and affect the narrative. Additional case studies explain the successful use of these concepts in films and animation. This book is geared toward students; however, it is also reader friendly for professionals. Composition for the 21st 1/2 century Image Making for Animation's goal is to comprehend composition as an artistic tool and as a significant part of the professional image making process.

Key Features
Teaches the complexity of composition in image making
Closes the gap between praxis and theory in animation
Explains how to produce images that support the narrative in their visuals
Discusses the need for artistic reasoning in image making
Presents case studies that assist the reader in understanding the process as they progress through this book

Author Bio
For more than twenty years, Thomas Paul Thesen's career has been about learning and understanding the complexities of art, animation and image making both in still illustration, drawing and photography and in the moving image. He has worked in the industry as a character animator and visual development artist for companies such as Pixar, DreamWorks and Sprite Animation Studios. He has also taught for many years at universities across Asia, the USA and the UK.
