Reimagining Lyric Diction Courses: Leading Change in the Classroom and Beyond Timothy Cheek, 2022-12-02 Drawing on 30 years of teaching experience author Timothy Cheek demonstrates how a university lyric diction class traditionally specialized and Eurocentric can become transformative through engaging students with other languages and cultures and promoting diversity equity inclusivity and antiracism Raising new possibilities for traditional lyric diction pedagogy this book explores how to provide students with experiences that speed their growth help them to see the big picture spark their curiosity clarify and expand their digital resources and skills and set them on a path of international collaboration Arguing against compartmentalization in voice curricula and exploring opportunities for creativity the author provides a guide to new approaches that will aid schools decisions about diction curricula in the challenging but promising era of 21st century pedagogy Voice faculty diction instructors curriculum committees graduate students in related fields and music school administrators should all find this book insightful and thought provoking as it goes to the heart of issues critical to the long term development of today s voice students

Beyond Age Effects in Instructional L2 Learning Simone E. Pfenninger, David Singleton, 2017-04-21 This book constitutes a holistic study of how and why late starters surpass early starters in comparable instructional settings Combining advanced quantitative methods with individual level qualitative data it examines the role of age of onset in the context of the Swiss multilingual educational system and focuses on performance at the beginning and end of secondary school thereby offering a long term view of the teenage experience of foreign language learning The study scrutinised factors that seem to prevent young starters from profiting from their extended learning period and investigated the mechanisms that enable late beginners to catch up with early beginners relatively quickly Taking account of contextual factors individual socio affective factors and instructional factors within a single longitudinal study the book makes a convincing case that age of onset is not only of minimal relevance for many aspects of instructed language acquisition but that in this context for a number of reasons a later onset can be beneficial

Foreign Language Teaching in Asia and Beyond Wai Meng Chan, Kwee Nyet Chin, Titima Suthiwan, 2011-10-27 This book comprising two parts is concerned with both the science and the art of foreign language teaching with a particular but not exclusive focus on Asia Under the theme of Theoretical foundation and research Part 1 of this book informs the readers about recent efforts in theoretical and empirical research which have had an impact on foreign language teaching or promise to yield results that will shape its future These studies not just from the domain of foreign language teaching but also its primary feeder disciplines of linguistics and second language acquisition offer the necessary theoretical and conceptual foundation for both current and future research and practice As its theme Classroom practice and evaluation studies
