Letters Without Capitals: Text and Practice in Kim Mun (Yao) Culture Jacob Cawthorne, 2020-12-29 Letters without Capitals Texts and Practices in Kim Mun Yao Culture examines the writing culture of Kim Mun communities in Southeast Asia and China The Kim Mun who belong to the Yao ethnic group are renowned for their Daoist religious practices and religious texts written in Chinese script This work takes an unpublished Kim Mun letter that was composed in Laos and sent to Vietnam as its centrepiece Through an analysis of the letter one which uses ethnographic accounts of Kim Mun communities and studies of Kim Mun literary and religious texts it demonstrates that writing is a cultural technology that primarily serves the purposes of the Kim Mun themselves rather than being an artefact of historical and cultural relationships of dependency on external state institutions or religious constituencies This has broad implications regarding our understanding of how writing can be adapted and deployed by minority communities on and beyond the margins of the state and of the underlying relationships between writing identity and power

Anthropology's Philosophy Nigel Rapport, 2025-07-04 This book focuses on anthropology s ambition for comprehensiveness and its interdisciplinary nature It consists of concise essays each around 2 500 words in which contributors examine how concepts traditionally linked to philosophy or other disciplines are interpreted and applied within anthropology Each contributor selects a personally inspiring concept and illustrates its relevance to anthropology showcasing how it takes on new meaning within an anthropological framework These essays vary in style and content allowing contributors to discuss the history of the concept s usage provide an ethnographic illustration of the concept or offer an analytical comparative or theoretical exposition of the concept as deployed anthropologically A common theme across all entries is the exploration of anthropological disciplinarity or anti disciplinarity highlighting its intellectual flexibility and genre blurring practices in an effort to approach that expansiveness necessary to do justice to the complexity of human existence The Composition of Anthropology Morten Nielsen, Nigel Rapport, 2017-12-14 How do anthropologists write their texts What is the nature of creativity in the discipline of anthropology This book follows anthropologists into spaces where words ideas and arguments take shape and explores the steps in a creative process In a unique examination of how texts come to be composed the editors bring together a distinguished group of anthropologists who offer valuable insight into their writing habits These reflexive glimpses into personal creativity reveal not only the processes by which theory and ethnography come in particular cases to be represented on the page but also supply examples that students may follow or adapt Writing in the Field Ivo Strecker, Shauna LaTosky, 2013 This festschrift is situated within the contexts of the Writing Culture debate the Rhetoric Culture project and the legacy of anthropologist Stephen Tyler s work on language and representation While Writing Culture 1986 alerted readers to the power of ethnographers over their field Writing in the Field alerts readers to the power of the field over its ethnographers Rather than reprise familiar debates about writing and representation the book s individual chapters elucidate how anthropological fieldwork is a highly fraught provisional and incomplete practice enmeshed in the gaps between self and the other The book s emphasis on the concepts of pathos epiphany and dissociation is developed through essays that are personal yet not merely subjective for they draw on and contribute to deep traditions of thinking about culture and rhetoric Series Ethnologie Forschung und Wissenschaft Vol 24 This fine collection of essays is a fitting tribute to the positive influence of Stephen Tyler an original and influential anthropologist of protean gifts E Douglas Lewis School of Social and Political Sciences U of Melbourne
