Enfleshing Freedom M. Shawn Copeland, 2023-11-28 The achievement of our humanity comes about only through immersion in concrete visceral embodied relational experience yet for many human beings that achievement is stamped by the struggle against oppression in history society and religion In this incisive and important work distinguished theologian M Shawn Copeland demonstrates with rare insight and conviction how Black women s historical experience and oppression cast a completely different light on our theological ideas about being human Copeland argues that race embodiment and relations of power reframe not only theological anthropology but also our notions of discipleship church Eucharist and Christ

Enfleshing Freedom is a work of deep moral seriousness rigorous speculative skill and sharp theological reasoning This new edition incorporates recent theological philosophical historical political and sociological scholarship engages with current social movements like BlackLivesMatter and MeToo and presents a new chapter on the body

African American Autobiographers Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2002-03-30 There is growing popular and scholarly interest in autobiography along with increasing regard for the achievements of African American writers The first reference of its kind this volume chronicles the autobiographical tradition in African American literature Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 66 African American authors who present autobiographical material in their works The volume profiles major figures such as Frederick Douglass Zora Neale Hurston Richard Wright Maya Angelou James Baldwin and Malcolm X along with many lesser known autobiographers who deserve greater attention While some are known primarily for their literary accomplishments others have gained acclaim for their diverse contributions to society The entries are written by expert contributors and provide authoritative information about their subjects Each begins with a concise biography which summarizes the life and achievements of the autobiographer This is followed by a discussion of major autobiographical works and themes along with an overview of the autobiographer's critical reception The entries close with primary and secondary bibliographies and a selected general bibliography concludes the volume Together the entries provide a detailed portrait of the African American autobiographical tradition from the 18th century to the present
