Bridges Memory Postmemory Contemporary American:

Bridges to Memory Maria Rice Bellamy, 2015-12-04 Tracing the development of a new genre in contemporary American literature that was engendered in the civil rights feminist and ethnic empowerment struggles of the 1960s and 1970s Bridges to Memory shows how these movements authorized African American and ethnic American women writers to reimagine the traumatic histories that form their ancestral inheritance and define their contemporary identities Drawing on the concept of postmemory a paradigm developed to describe the relationship that children of Holocaust survivors have to their parents traumatic experiences Maria Bellamy examines narrative representations of this inherited form of trauma in the work of contemporary African American and ethnic American women writers Focusing on Gayl Jones's Corregidora Octavia Butler's Kindred Phyllis Alesia Perry's Stigmata Cristina Garcia's Dreaming in Cuban Nora Okja Keller's Comfort Woman and Edwidge Danticat's The Dew Breaker Bellamy shows how cultural context determines the ways in which traumatic history is remembered and transmitted to future generations Taken together these narratives of postmemory manifest the haunting presence of the past in the present and constitute an archive of textual witness and global relevance that builds cross cultural understanding and ethical engagement with the suffering of others

Racialized Visions Vanessa K. Valdés, 2020-12-01 As a Francophone nation Haiti is seldom studied in conjunction with its Spanish speaking Caribbean neighbors Racialized Visions challenges the notion that linguistic difference has kept the populations of these countries apart instead highlighting ongoing exchanges between their writers artists and thinkers Centering Haiti in this conversation also makes explicit the role that race and more specifically anti blackness has played both in the region and in academic studies of it Following the Revolution and Independence in 1804 Haiti was conflated with blackness Spanish colonial powers used racist representations of Haiti to threaten their holdings in the Atlantic Ocean In the years since white elites in Cuba the Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico upheld Haiti as a symbol of barbarism and savagery Racialized Visions powerfully refutes this symbolism Across twelve essays contributors demonstrate how cultural producers

Autofiction and Cultural Memory Hywel Dix, 2022-12-22 Autofiction and Cultural Memory breaks new ground in autofiction research by showing how it gives postcolonial writers a means of bearing witness to past cultural or political struggles and hence of contributing to new forms of cultural memory Most discussion of autofiction has treated it as an individualistic form dealing with the personal growth of its authors In doing so it privileges narratives of private development over those of social commitment and accords with Western concepts of ownership and authorship By contrast Hywel Dix shows how a variety of writers outside the Western world have used the techniques of autofiction in a different way placing themselves on the side lines of their own stories to show solidarity with struggles against imperialism and tyranny Drawing on examples from Algeria Ethiopia the Caribbean the Americas India and Turkey Dix presents autofiction as a form which combines the life stories of authors with the collective struggles of their societies to restore to view historical injustices that have been marginalised and forgotten By contributing to new forms of cultural memory autofiction raises important questions about what we choose to remember and what we value in the present This book will be of interest to anyone working in postcolonial studies world literature trauma studies autobiography life writing or social justice
