

AP Gov Constitution Review Guide

Directions: These questions are an outline of the parts of the Constitution you will need to review for the Mock and AP Exam. It goes over the three branches, their powers, and checks and balances as well as the Amendments and important clauses in those amendments.

In order to complete this assignment use the Interactive Constitution and/or any resources you like. Please use your own words and do not copy and paste each response.

Part I: STRUCTURE OF THE CONSTITUTION

1. Read each article of the Constitution. Summarize the general purpose or subject of each article in one sentence in the chart below. Do not just copy down each Article.

Article I	Put one creates the legislative branch and includes all the powers granted to the legislative branch. Section 2 and Section 3 of Article I highlights the powers of the Senate and House of Representatives. Section 4 Through 6. Includes situations correlated to the House of Representatives and Senate.
Article II	Article two creates the executive branch and includes all the powers that are granted to the executive branch. One also includes presidential elections and the aspects, as well as the creation of the Electoral College. Section 2 through three talk about presidential powers like the power to pardon.
Article III	Article 3 creates the judicial branch and the powers granted to the judicial branch. Article Three also gives Congress the power to create federal courts. It also highlights the different Jurisdictions that are granted to different courts.
Article V	Article 4 Include certain provisions that talk about the structure of the federal government and the power that is distributed between the state and national government. Tha. Section one and two talk about state relationships, like how one state must return a criminal to the state where the crime was committed when the. Reminder was out of state and section three to four talk about the relationships between the state and national government.

2. Identify two powers denied to Congress in the Constitution.

No bill or ex facto law will be passed

3. How does the House of Representatives determine the rules of proceedings (the ability to have debates, amendments, etc.)?

A rep sponsors a bill and the bill is then assigned for a committee to study, then if released by the committee the bill is put on the floor for the house of reps to debate on it
