Jewish Faqs Rabbi Daniel Kohn, 2009-09-04 Many people turn to the Internet when they have questions about anything, including Judaism. Spiritual searchers today are no different. The profusion of Web sites, online forums, and e-mail discussion groups devoted to Judaism provides ample testimony to the need and desire for nearly instantaneous access to spiritual information and guidance. In our modern technology-focused society today, America Online's Ask a Rabbi service was an instant hit the moment it was introduced over a decade ago. As an original volunteer for this service for eight years, Rabbi Kohn answered over 1,300 questions about every imaginable Jewish topic, ranging from anti-Semitism, sex, God, Jewish holidays, death, Kabbalah, Kashrut, prayer, spirituality, and much more. Rabbi Kohn's answers are short and concise, answering the questions directly, often with humor, but always with feeling. Jewish FAQs is a selection of nearly 300 of the best, most interesting, and informative questions and answers, similar to a Web site's Jewish FAQ, frequently asked questions. A FAQ is a file containing the essential questions and answers to help users find and understand a Web site. Jewish FAQs is similar because it provides a basic introduction to anything and everything related to Jewish life, all in one place. So if you have a question about Judaism, whether you're young or old, Internet-savvy or a dyed-in-the-wool print and paper reader, chances are you'll find the answer here in Jewish FAQs.
