Becoming the Buddha Lori Cara Cohen,2005 A None's Story Corinna Nicolaou,2016-03-29 The rising population known as nones for its members lack of religious affiliation is changing American society politics and culture Many nones believe in God and even visit places of worship but they do not identify with a specific faith or belong to a spiritual community Corinna Nicolaou is a none and in this layered narrative she describes what it is like for her and thousands of others to live without religion or to be spiritual without committing to a specific faith Nicolaou tours America's major traditional religions to see what if anything one might lack without God She moves through Christianity's denominations learning their tenets and worshiping alongside their followers She travels to Los Angeles to immerse herself in Judaism Berkeley to educate herself about Buddhism and Dallas and Washington D C to familiarize herself with Islam She explores what light they can shed on the fears and failings of her past and these encounters prove the significant role religion still plays in modern life They also exemplify the vibrant relationship between religion and American culture and the enduring value it provides to immigrants and outsiders Though she remains a devout none Nicolaou's experiences reveal points of contact between the religious and the unaffiliated suggesting that nones may be radically revising the practice of faith in contemporary times
