A Subtle Sort Of Genocide:

Critical Perspectives on African Genocide Alfred Frankowski, Jeanine Ntikirageza, Chielozone Eze, 2021-02-23 Genocide has become a part of the contemporary global expression of political violence After all every continent has had its genocide but genocide in Africa and the African diaspora is distinctly different from those in Europe or the West This text approaches genocide from within the context of Africa and the African diaspora to examine political and philosophical after effects of global colonialism As genocidal state violence has become prominent through colonialism its appearance in Europe and the West have developed sharply against how it appears in colonized spaces within the African diaspora This text argues that such a difference in orientation is needed to develop new concepts critical approaches and perspectives on the intersections between colonialism political violence and anti black politics as a way of critically understanding global genocide and the presence of continual genocidal violence

Every Living Thing Jenell Johnson, 2023-01-03 This book examines the question of what we mean when we talk about life revealing new insights into what life is what it does and why it matters Jenell Johnson studies arguments on behalf of life not just of the human or animal variety but all life She considers for example the Standing Rock Sioux tribe s fight for water deep ecologists Earth First activism the Voluntary Human Extinction Movement and astrophysicists positions on Martian microbes What she reveals is that this advocacy vital advocacy expands our view of what counts as life and shows us what it would mean for the moral standing of human life to be extended to life itself Including short interviews with celebrated ecological writer Dorion Sagan former NASA Planetary Protection Officer Catharine Conley and leading figure in Indigenous and environmental studies Kyle Whyte Every Living Thing provides a capacious view of life in the natural world This book is a must read for anyone interested in biodiversity bioethics and the environment

Modern Genocide Paul R. Bartrop, Steven Leonard Jacobs, 2014-12-17 This massive four volume work provides students with a close examination of 10 modern genocides enhanced by documents and introductions that provide additional historical and contemporary context for learning about and understanding these tragic events Modern Genocide The Definitive Resource and Document Collection spans nearly 1 700 pages presented in four volumes and includes more than 120 primary source documents making it ideal for high school and beginning college students studying modern genocide as part of a larger world history curriculum The coverage for each modern genocide from Herero to Darfur begins with an introductory essay that helps students conceptualize the conflict within an international context and enables them to better understand the complex role genocide has played in the modern world There are hundreds of entries on atrocities organizations individuals and other aspects of genocide each written to serve as a springboard to meaningful discussion and further research The coverage of each genocide includes an introductory overview an explanation of the causes consequences perpetrators victims and bystanders the international reaction a timeline of events an Analyze section that poses tough questions for readers to consider and provides scholarly pro and con responses to these historical conundrums and reference entries This integrated examination of genocides occurring in the modern era not only presents an unprecedented research tool on the subject but also challenges the readers to go back and examine other events historically and consequently consider important questions about human society in the present and the future Tatty, I Have a Lawyer, 1998

The Hidden Hand Daniel Pipes, 1998 A noted Middle East specialist looks at conspiracy theories and the way they control life and politics in the region

International Crimes Guénaél Mettraux, 2019 This book discusses in detail the law of genocide its definition elements normative status and relationship to the other core international crimes It is the first in a four volume compendium from Judge Mettraux on the four core international crimes Children by Choice? Ann-Katrin Gembries, Theresia Theuke, Isabel Heinemann, 2018-05-22 During the 20th century medico technical advances such as the invention of the latex condom 1930 the arrival of the contraceptive pill on the free market 1960 61 and the birth of the first child conceived by in vitro fertilization 1978 contributed to the fact that in Europe and the USA the planning conceiving and making of children was increasingly perceived as a matter of individual and collective decision making Especially since mid century these societies underwent profound political economic and cultural evolutions In the realm of human reproduction the relationship between the possible the desirable and the permitted had to be continually renegotiated This volume examines in nine chapters how thinking speaking and acting changed with regards to reproduction and family planning throughout the modern and post modern period Applying an international comparative perspective the study specifically focuses on the role of value changes underlying these transformation processes

Life in the Balance Joni Eareckson Tada, 2010-12-09 Never before has it been so important for Christians to discover the answers God s Word holds to our culture s biggest ethical and social dilemmas Every day the 24 hour news cycle offers stories from around the world of unimaginable physical mental and emotional suffering Yet more often than not these stories and the underlying problems they represent are reported with no suggestions for resolution Can it really be true that there are no solutions to our world s biggest crises Joni Eareckson Tada refuses to believe it On her TV show she has interviewed scores of people who have faced life s toughest battles and emerged victorious In Life in the Balance Joni and her friends take on some of the most difficult issues covered by the evening news such as street violence abortion autism genocide and stem cell research But they don t just tell the stories they dig deep into the Word of God to find real and lasting solutions to so called unsolvable problems This workbook designed for participants in a Life in the Balance individual and group study will guide readers to apply the timeless yet timely truth of God s Word to society s greatest challenges
