ACCOUNTING 1

Accounting Basics

Accounting Standards

- Accounting principles have been in existence since the late 1400s when devised by Luca Pacioli, an Italian motheropician, and have evolved over time
- 2. Modern day accounting principles in the United States are called generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP); these principles guide the work of accountants
- 3. The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) has regulatory authority over accounting principles used by public corporation A. The SEC is a federal agency responsible for enforcing the federal securities laws
 - and regulating the recordice industry.

 B. It delegates the responsibility for the development of GAAP to the accounting
- profession via the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASR)
- The FASB develops new standards via due process activities that allow input from accidentants and executives in business and industry.
- 5. The International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) develops global accounting standards A Multinational companies follow LASS standards
 - B. The IAMB works with other key global accounting standards bedies to create a
- ngle source of accounting standards 6. The Government Accounting Standards Board (GASB) sets state and local
- poverment standards for accounting A The GASB is a private, hongovernmental organization subject to oversight and
- funding by the Financial Accounting Foundation (VAF). II. The federal government follows standards set by the FASB when performing accounting for its units.
