Banished To The Homeland Dominican Deportees And Their Stories Of Exile:

Banished to the Homeland David Brotherton, Luis Barrios, 2011 The 1996 U S Immigration Reform and Responsibility Act has led to the forcible deportation of tens of thousands of Dominicans from the United States Following thousands of these individuals over a seven year period David C Brotherton and Luis Barrios use a unique combination of sociological and criminological reasoning to isolate the forces that motivate emigrants to leave their homeland and then commit crimes in the United States violating the very terms of their stay Housed in urban landscapes rife with gangs drugs and tenuous working conditions these individuals the authors find repeatedly play out a tragic scenario influenced by long standing historical injustices punitive politics and increasingly conservative attitudes undermining basic human rights and freedoms Brotherton and Barrios conclude that a simultaneous process of cultural inclusion and socioeconomic exclusion best explains the trajectory of emigration settlement and rejection and they mark in the behavior of deportees the contradictory effects of dependency and colonialism the seductive draw of capitalism typified by the American dream versus the material needs of immigrant life the interests of an elite security state versus the desires of immigrant workers and families to succeed and the ambitions of the Latino community versus the political realities of those designing crime and immigration laws which disadvantage poor and vulnerable populations Filled with riveting life stories and uncommon ethnographic research this volume relates the modern deportee's journey to broader theoretical studies in transnationalism assimilation and social control

The New Deportations Delirium Daniel Kanstroom, M. Brinton Lykes, 2015-12-25 Since 1996 when the deportation laws were hardened millions of migrants to the U S including many long term legal permanent residents with green cards have experienced summary arrest incarceration without bail transfer to remote detention facilities and deportation without counsel The complexities of these issues are discussed and an argument is made for an interdisciplinary dialogue and response Deportation policy is debated by lawyers judges social workers researchers and clinical and community psychologists as well as educators researchers and community activists

The Handbook of Race, Ethnicity, Crime, and Justice Ramiro Martinez, Jr., Meghan E. Hollis, Jacob I. Stowell, 2018-06-08 This Handbook presents current and future studies on the changing dynamics of the role of immigrants and the impact of immigration across the United States and industrialized and developing nations It covers the changing dynamics of race ethnicity and immigration and discusses how it all contributes to variations in crime policing and the overall justice system Through acknowledging that some groups especially people of color are disproportionately influenced more than others in the case of criminal justice reactions the War on Drugs and hate crimes this Handbook introduces the importance of studying race and crime so as to better understand it It does so by recommending that researchers concentrate on ethnic diversity in a national and international context in order to broaden their demographic and expand their understanding of how to attain global change Featuring contributions from top experts in the field The Handbook of Race and Crime is presented in five sections An Overview of Race Ethnicity Crime and Justice Theoretical Perspectives on Race and Crime Race Gender and the Justice System Gender and Crime and Race Gender and Comparative Criminology Each section of the book addresses a key area of research summarizes findings or shortcomings whenever possible and provides new results relevant to race crime and justice Every contribution is written by a top expert in the field and based on the latest research With a sharp focus on contemporary race ethnicity crime and justice studies The Handbook of Race and Crime is the ideal reference for advanced undergraduate students graduate students and scholars interested in the disciplines such as Criminology Race and Ethnicity Race and the Justice System and the Sociology of Race

Latinos in New York Sherrie Baver, Angelo Falcón, Gabriel Haslip-Viera, 2017-06-23 Significant changes in New York City's Latino community have occurred since the first edition of Latinos in New York Communities in Transition was published in 1996 The Latino population in metropolitan New York has increased from 1.7 million in the 1990s to over 2.4 million constituting a third of the population spread over five boroughs Puerto Ricans remain the largest subgroup followed by Dominicans and Mexicans however Puerto Ricans are no longer the majority of New York's Latinos as they were throughout most of the twentieth century Latinos in New York Communities in Transition second edition is the most comprehensive reader available on the experience of New York City's diverse Latino population The essays in Part I examine the historical and sociocultural context of Latinos in New York Part II looks at the diversity comprising Latino New York Contributors focus on specific national origin groups including Ecuadorians Colombians and Central Americans and examine the factors that prompted emigration from the country of origin the socioeconomic status of the emigrants the extent of transnational ties with the home country and the immigrants interaction with other Latino groups in New York Essays in Part III focus on politics and policy issues affecting New York's Latinos The book brings together leading social analysts and community advocates on the Latino experience to address issues that have been largely neglected in the literature on New York City These include the role of race culture and identity health the criminal justice system the media and higher education subjects that require greater attention both from academic as well as policy perspectives Contributors Sherrie Baver Juan Cartagena Javier Castaño Ana María Díaz Stevens Angelo Falcón Juan Flores Gabriel Haslip Viera Ramona Hernández Luz Yadira Herrera Gilbert Marzón Ed Morales Pedro A. Scarred Landscapes Stephanie Lewthwaite, 2025-09-30 Scarred Landscapes is a groundbreaking exploration of the rich and complex works of Caribbean Latinx artists Scholar Stephanie Lewthwaite documents the work of ten influential artists of Cuban Dominican and Puerto Rican descent based in New York City from the 1970s to the present Through their diverse practices including painting printmaking photography sculpture installation video and performance art these artists confront the legacies of colonial trauma and their own experiences of diasporic unbelonging and artworld marginality The book combines formal analysis with artist testimony exhibition histories and theoretical frameworks from trauma memory and archipelagic studies to offer a multifaceted examination of Caribbean Latinx art Lewthwaite explores how these artists practice archipelagic memory a generative decolonial and coalitional form of memory work that envisions alternative modes of belonging in difference and solidarity with others By connecting different people pasts and places Caribbean Latinx artists expose the reverberations of trauma while imagining other worlds beyond it This work puts Caribbean Latinx artists at the center of debates about the exclusions of dominant memory narratives and contemporary art worlds highlighting their contributions to a wider decolonial project of remembrance By revealing the interconnectedness of traumatic histories and the potential for art to foster empathy and justice Lewthwaite s work underscores the importance of relational and decolonial thought for imagining a better society

The Other People M. Wilkes Karraker, 2013-05-14 This book offers an interdisciplinary and accessible approach to issues of global migration in the twenty first century in 13 essays plus an appendix written by scholars and practitioners in the field

Detain and Deport Nancy Hiemstra, 2019 Detention and deportation have become keystones of immigration and border enforcement policies around the world The United States has built a massive immigration enforcement system that detains and deports more people than any other country This system is grounded in the assumptions that national borders are territorially fixed and controllable and that detention and deportation bolster security and deter migration Nancy Hiemstra s multisited ethnographic research pairs investigation of enforcement practices in the United States with an exploration into conditions migrants face in one country of origin Ecuador Detain and Deport s transnational approach reveals how the U S immigration enforcement system s chaotic organization and operation distracts from the mismatch between these assumptions and actual outcomes Hiemstra draws on the experiences of detained and deported migrants as well as their families and communities in Ecuador to show convincingly that instead of deterring migrants and improving national security detention and deportation generate insecurities and forge lasting connections across territorial borders At the same time the system s chaos works to curtail rights and maintain detained migrants on a narrow path to deportation Hiemstra argues that in addition to the racialized ideas of national identity and a fluctuating dependence on immigrant labor that have long propelled U S immigration policies the contemporary emphasis on detention and deportation is fueled by the influence of people and entities that profit from them

Latino City Llana

Barber, 2017-03-08 Latino City explores the transformation of Lawrence Massachusetts into New England s first Latino majority city Like many industrial cities Lawrence entered a downward economic spiral in the decades after World War II due to deindustrialization and suburbanization The arrival of tens of thousands of Puerto Ricans and Dominicans in the late twentieth century brought new life to the struggling city but settling in Lawrence was fraught with challenges Facing hostility from their neighbors exclusion from local governance inadequate city services and limited job prospects Latinos fought and organized for the right to make a home in the city In this book Llana Barber interweaves the histories of urban crisis in U S cities and imperial migration from Latin America Pushed to migrate by political and economic circumstances shaped by the long history of U S intervention in Latin America poor and working class Latinos then had to reckon with the segregation joblessness disinvestment and profound stigma that plagued U S cities during the crisis era particularly in the Rust Belt For many Puerto Ricans and Dominicans there was no American Dream awaiting them in Lawrence instead Latinos struggled to build lives for themselves in the ruins of industrial America

Inside Immigration Detention

Mary Bosworth, 2014 On any given day nearly 3000 foreign national citizens are detained under immigration powers in UK detention centers alone Around the world immigrants are routinely detained in similar conditions The institutions charged with immigrant detention are volatile and contested sites They are also places about which we know very little What is their goal How do they operate How are they justified Inside Immigration Detention lifts the lid on the hidden world of migrant detention presenting the first national study of life in British immigration removal centers Offering more than just a description of life behind bars of those men and women awaiting deportation it uses staff and detainee testimonies to revisit key assumptions about state power and the legacies of colonialism under conditions of globalization Based on fieldwork conducted in six immigration removal centers IRCs between 2009 and 2012 it draws together a large amount of empirical data including detainee surveys and interviews staff interviews observation and detailed field notes From this the book explores how immigration removal centers identify their inhabitants as strangers constructing them as unfamiliar ambiguous and uncertain In this endeavor the establishments are greatly assisted by their resemblance to prisons and by familiar racialized narratives about foreigners and nationality However as staff and detainee testimonies reveal in their interactions and day to day life women and men find many points of commonality Such recognition of one another reveals the goal and effect of detention to be incomplete Denial requires effort In order to minimize the effort it must expend the state governs at distance via the contract It also splits itself in two deploying some immigration staff onsite while keeping the actual decision makers the caseworkers elsewhere sequestered from the potentially destabilizing effects of facing up to those whom they wish to remove Such distancing while bureaucratically effective contributes to the uncertainty of daily life in detention and is often the source of considerable criticism and unease Denial and familiarity are embodied and localized activities whose pains and contradictions inhere in concrete relationships

Caribbean Military Encounters

Shalini Puri, Lara Putnam, 2017-05-19 This book provides a much needed study of the lived experience of militarization in the Caribbean from 1914 to the present It offers an alternative to policy and security studies by drawing on the perspectives of literary and cultural studies history anthropology ethnography music and visual art Rather than opposing or defending militarization per se this book focuses attention on how Caribbean people negotiate militarization in their everyday lives The volume explores topics such as the US occupation of Haiti British West Indians in World War I the British naval invasion of Anguilla military bases including Chaguaramas Vieques and Guantamo the militarization of the police sex work and the military drug wars and surveillance calypso commentaries private security armies and border patrol operations
