Encyclopedia of African American Education Kofi Lomotey, 2010. The Encyclopedia of African American Education covers educational institutions at every level from preschool through graduate and professional training with special attention to historically black and predominantly black colleges and universities. Other entries cover individuals, organizations, associations and publications that have had a significant impact on African American education. The Encyclopedia also presents information on public policy affecting the education of African Americans including both court decisions and legislation. It includes a discussion of curriculum, concepts, theories and alternative models of education and addresses the topics of gender and sexual orientation, religion and the media. The Encyclopedia also includes a Reader's Guide provided to help readers find entries on related topics. It classifies entries in sixteen categories: Alternative Educational Models, Associations and Organizations, Biographies, Collegiate Education, Curriculum, Economics, Gender, Graduate and Professional Education, Historically Black Colleges and Universities, Legal Cases, Pre-Collegiate Education, Psychology and Human Development, Public Policy, Publications, Religious Institutions, Segregation, Desegregation. Some entries appear in more than one category. This two-volume reference work will be an invaluable resource not only for educators and students but for all readers who seek an understanding of African American education both historically and in the 21st century.

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Intercultural Competence Janet M. Bennett, 2015-03-23. In 1980 SAGE published Geert Hofstede's Culture's Consequences. It opens with a quote from Blaise Pascal: "There are truths on this side of the Pyrenees that are falsehoods on the other." The book became a classic, one of the most cited sources in the Social Science Citation Index and subsequently appeared in a second edition in 2001. This new SAGE Encyclopedia of Intercultural Competence picks up on themes explored in that book. Cultural competence refers to the set of attitudes, practices and policies that enables a person or agency to work well with people from differing cultural groups. Other related terms include cultural sensitivity, transcultural skills, diversity competence and multicultural expertise. What defines a culture? What barriers might block successful communication between individuals or agencies of differing cultures? How can those barriers be understood and navigated to enhance intercultural communication and understanding? These questions and more are explained within the pages of this new reference work.

Key Features: 300 to 350 entries organized in A to Z fashion in two volumes. Signed entries that conclude with Cross References and Suggestions for Further Readings. Thematic Reader's Guide in the front matter grouping related entries by broad topic areas. Chronology that provides a historical perspective of the development of cultural competence as a discrete field of study Resources appendix and a comprehensive Index The SAGE Encyclopedia of Intercultural Competence is an authoritative and rigorous source on intercultural competence and related issues making it a must have reference for all academic libraries Marginalized Literacies Cara M Mulcahy, 2010-06-01

Functional literacy cultural literacy and progressive literacy are just a few of the many terms one can invoke when attempting to define literacy From a critical perspective for a democratic society to exist a critical literacy is of crucial importance Critical literacy aims to empower individuals and transform society It is grounded in critical theory and like critical pedagogy investigates ways in which social cultural racial sexual and economic inequalities are reproduced By investigating the ideological political and social structures that perpetuate such inequalities it hopes to raise consciousness and move towards creating a more socially just society This book examines the approaches set forth by Atwell Calkins and Rief in their books In the Middle 1998 The Art of Teaching Writing 1994 and Seeking Diversity 1992 respectively This book is of relevance to teacher educators and English Language Arts teachers It enables one to become familiar with the main components of the Readers Writers workshop and develop an awareness of how literacy may be conceptualized and reconceptualized through this approach Teacher educators will find this text useful for raising preservice teachers awareness of the ideologies that inform literacy education and in developing their understanding for how students are positioned socially culturally politically and economically by such ideologies English Language Arts teachers will find this book informative in understanding how they can be positioned by teacher texts to teach towards certain ideologies of literacy Finally it allows teacher educators and English Language Arts teachers to consider what kind of literacy education is provided for through the Readers Writers workshop and whether space may be negotiated within the Readers Writers workshop for the teaching of critical literacy
