Afterschool Education Approaches To An Emerging Field:

Afterschool Education Gil G. Noam, Gina Biancarosa, Nadine Dechausay, 2002-01-01 The authors survey the current afterschool landscape and bring to light important issues and practices within the field explore the challenges and opportunities facing afterschool education programs and point to future directions for these burgeoning educational ventures Afterschool education has grown in recent years into a vast and diverse enterprise In the United States young people spend almost a third of their organized time including school hours in afterschool and summer programs Yet there is little clear and conclusive research on afterschool programs research that would help guide the practice of existing afterschool programs and establish guidelines for the creation of new programs An indispensable guide for practitioners administrators policy makers and parents Afterschool Education will serve as the cornerstone for all future accounts of and proposals for this crucial educational field

Learning and Community Jack Wertheimer, 2009-07 Rich ethnographies of Jewish supplementary schools drawn from every region in the U S

Ignatian Pedagogy for Public Schools Benjamin J. Brenkert, 2023-07-27 This book shows how the pedagogical philosophy of the Society of Jesus the Jesuits founder Ignatius of Loyola can be used and applied in public school settings in the USA and around the world without dismantling the separation of church and state Ignatian Pedagogy should be considered a historical precursor to modern practical and pedagogical theories such as culturally relevant pedagogy and equity frameworks in education with Jesuit foundational texts such as the Ratio Studiorum including material about working within and valuing the context of the culture surrounding schools emphasizing student voice and empowering the student as a co teacher Based on new research carried out in New York City Department of Education NYC DOE schools the author argues for universal character formation programs based on already existing and highly effective programs at Jesuit sponsored schools The research shows that universal character formation programs are highly effective in developing students flourishing strengthening their relationships with themselves and others and enabling critical reflective thought Based on the theory of Ignatius of Loyola and the work of thinkers including Paulo Freire Mahatma Gandhi Elisabeth Johnson and Martin Luther King Brenkert presents a theological philosophical framework for creating a beloved community free from oppression poverty and hate

Chinese Education Models in a Global Age Chuing Prudence Chou, Jonathan Spangler, 2016-04-06 China's rise and increasing emphasis on international education benchmarking and a global recognition of East Asian countries success in this regard have brought the issue of Chinese education to the forefront of public consciousness In particular the concept of a Chinese education model is one that has sparked debate and quickly become a major focus of education research around the world especially in light of regional achievements vis vis university rankings bibliometric indices the Programme for International Student Assessment PISA Trends in International Mathematics and Science Study TIMSS and other such benchmarks Chinese Education Models in a Global Age tackles this controversial issue head on by synthesizing a diversity of analyses from a world class team of twenty seven authors It reveals that Chinese education models which are present in many different geographic and institutional contexts have an important influence on social and institutional norms as well as individual belief systems and behaviors in China and beyond The first of its kind this edited volume establishes a foundation for future research while providing a nuanced and tightly integrated compilation of differing perspectives on the role and impact of Chinese education models worldwide It is essential reading for all scholars policymakers students parents and educators interested in the rising demographic and economic influence of people of Chinese descent on education around the world

Handbook of Reading Research, Volume IV Michael L. Kamil, P. David Pearson, Elizabeth Birr Moje, Peter Afflerbach, 2011-03-17 The Handbook of Reading Research is the research Handbook for the field Each volume has come to define the field for the period of time it covers Volume IV follows in this tradition The editors extensively reviewed the reading research literature since the publication of Volume III in 2000 as portrayed in a wide array of research and practitioner based journals and books to identify the themes and topics covered As in previous volumes the focus is on reading research rather than a range of literate practices When taken as a set the four volumes provide a definitive history of reading research Volume IV brings the field authoritatively and comprehensively up to date

STEM Education 2.0 Alpaslan Sahin, Margaret J. Mohr-Schroeder, 2019-08-12 STEM Education 2.0 discusses the most recent research on important selected K 12 STEM topics by synthesizing previous research and offering new research questions The contributions range from analysis of key STEM issues that have been studied for more than two decades to topics that have more recently become popular such as maker space and robotics In each chapter nationally and internationally known STEM experts review key literature in the field share findings of their own research with its implications for K 12 STEM education and finally offer future research areas and questions in the respected area they have been studying This volume provides diverse and leading voices in the future of STEM education and STEM education research

Making Failure Pay Jill P. Koyama, 2010-08-15 A little discussed aspect of the No Child Left Behind Act NCLB is a mandate that requires failing schools to hire after school tutoring companies the largest of which are private for profit corporations and to pay them with federal funds Making Failure Pay takes a hard look at the implications of this new blurring of the boundaries between government schools and commerce in New York City the country's largest school district As Jill P Koyama explains in this revelatory book NCLB a federally legislated state regulated district administered and school applied policy explicitly legitimizes giving private organizations significant roles in public education Based on her three years of ethnographic fieldwork Koyama finds that the results are political problematic and highly profitable Bringing to light these unproven unregulated private companies almost invisible partnership with the government Making Failure Pay lays bare the unintended consequences of federal efforts to eliminate school failure not the least of which is more failure

Job Skills and Minority Youth Barton J. Hirsch, 2015-11-19 Minority youth unemployment is an enduring economic and social concern This book evaluates two new initiatives for minority high school students that seek to cultivate marketable job skills The first is an after school program that provides experiences similar to apprenticeships and the second emphasizes new approaches to improving job interview performance The evaluation research has several distinct strengths It involves a randomized controlled trial uncommon in assessments of this issue and age group Marketable job skills are assessed through a mock job interview developed for this research and administered by experienced human resource professionals Mixed methods are utilized with qualitative data shedding light on what actually happens inside the programs and a developmental science approach situating the findings in terms of adolescent development Beneficial for policy makers and practitioners as well as scholars Job Skills and Minority Youth focuses on identifying the most promising tactics and addressing likely implementation issues

Mobility and Cosmopolitanism Vered Amit, Pauline Gardiner Barber, 2018-04-19 In academic descriptions of cosmopolitanism one particularly important distinction often recurs Specifically scholars have been concerned to distinguish between cosmopolitanism as a set of mundane practices and or competences on the one hand and cosmopolitanism as a cultivated form of consciousness or moral aspiration on the other For anthropologists whose ethnographic studies reveal many different expressions of cosmopolitanism this distinction between aspiration and practice can often be quite ambiguous This book therefore brings together five contributions from anthropologists who are reporting on encounters and aspirations that reveal different forms of spatial mobility scales of commitment or risk and are often transient ambivalent and precarious These are circumstances in which cosmopolitanism emerges as uneven and partial rather than as a comprehensive or unequivocal transformation of practice and outlook This book was originally published as a special issue of Identities Global Studies in Culture and Power

The Globe's Emigrating Children Kathleen A. Stark, 2008 The Globe's Emigrating Children describes one teacher's experiences teaching twenty four immigrant students during their first year in the United States From diverse places including Vietnam Iraq Somalia Sudan Mexico El Salvador and Haiti these children brought their many languages and cultures to a first grade sheltered English classroom in a large urban school district Kathleen A Stark's thoughts and conversations with her students and her struggles to address each of the children's emotional and learning needs while guiding them to recognize and question the assumptions of the world around them provide a much needed intimate look into the lives and education of immigrant children Stark's beautifully written reflections about the teacher's role and the role of education in general are supremely original honest and thought provoking This book should be read by any teacher involved in such areas as immigration early childhood theory literacy foreign language education and critical pedagogy It is also suited to pre service college courses devoted to these topics
