Resources in Education ,1999-10 Transitiion to Online Testing Society for the Advancement of Excellence in Education,2007 Intercultural Communication Martin S. Remland,Tricia S. Jones,Anita Foeman,Bessie L. Lawton,2023-10-27 In our increasingly globalized world bridging cultural gaps and connecting with people from diverse backgrounds is essential Students have more opportunities than ever to immerse themselves in foreign settings and it is important to learn positive approaches to take part in these experiences This new edition of Intercultural Communication engages readers interested in developing intercultural competence with the goal of fostering diverse and vibrant communities that coexist peacefully. The authors start by establishing the foundation of competent communication and its integral role in contributing to peaceful communities. From there they delve into how cultural differences relate to the impacts of cultural frames and emotions as well as nonverbal and verbal communication. In the latter half of the book the text comprehensively surveys how culture permeates and influences our lives. It explores how culture shapes the dynamics of our friendships, family relationships, classroom and workplace environments, media perceptions and experiences when visiting cultures different from our own. By understanding the profound effects of these cultural influences, readers are better equipped to fully immerse themselves in different ways of life. Each chapter also provides a collection of boxed examples that deliver both engaging insights and entertaining anecdotes, offering ample content for stimulating discussions.

Assessment in Education Shelleyann Scott, Donald E. Scott, Charles F. Webber, 2015-10-20 This book provides key insights into how educational leaders can successfully navigate the turbulence of political debate surrounding leading student assessment and professionalised practice. Given the highly politicised nature of assessment, it addresses leaders and aspiring leaders who are open to being challenged, willing to explore controversy and capable of engaging in informed critical discourse. The book presents the macro concepts that these audiences must have to guide optimal assessment policy and practice. Collectively, the chapters highlight important assessment purposes and models, including intended and unintended effects of assessment in a globalised context. The book provides opportunities to explore cultural similarities and particularities. It invites readers to challenge taken-for-granted assumptions about ourselves and colleagues in other settings. The chapters highlight the cultural clashes that may occur when cross-cultural borrowing of assessment strategies, policies and tools takes place. However, authors also encourage sophisticated critical analyses of potential lessons that may be drawn from other contexts and systems. Readers will encounter challenges from authors to deconstruct their assessment values, beliefs and preconceptions. Indeed, one purpose of the book is to destabilise certainties about assessment that prevail and to embrace the assessment possibilities that can emerge from cognitive dissonance.

Communication Interventions with Deaf People, 2025-06-12 Communication Interventions with Deaf People concerns the application of spoken, signed and written language interventions with deaf and hard of hearing children, young people and adults. Exploring the work that speech and language therapists, pathologists, deaf language specialists and other professionals carry out with deaf people, this volume extends beyond the classroom and provides clinical and real-life applications of learning and communication. Historically, communication interventions with deaf people have prioritised spoken language and considered it to be the most appropriate and normal accomplishment. However, this book begins with a deaf perspective on communication interventions where the multiple languages signed spoken and written of deaf people are valued equally and this paradigm shift is reflected throughout the various chapters With over forty contributors the research and professional experience of experts working with deaf people across national borders is presented Individual chapters describe the ways that services are delivered and detail different aspects of communication interventions presenting the current evidence base and indicating areas where further research is needed 412e Escadron de Transport ,1995
