Toward a Grammar of Curriculum Practice Edmund C. Short, 2023-07-01 Curriculum planning can be conceptualized in various ways and curriculum planners necessarily must adopt a particular approach in order to facilitate their thinking and decision making However the history of curriculum planning suggests that existing conceptualizations are sometimes confusing imprecise or not as helpful as they might be There is a need for a new conceptualization that overcomes the limitations of these earlier conceptions Through conceptual analysis and concept development the author presents curriculum planning as a form of educational practice distinct from other practices such as teaching administration and policy making Short s grammar of curriculum practice describes a set of key concepts and the meaningful relationships among them that define the essential elements of curriculum and of curriculum planning

Modern Curriculum for Gifted and Advanced Academic Students Todd A. Kettler, 2021-09-03 Modern Curriculum for Gifted and Advanced Academic Students addresses the need for advanced curriculum design in an age of national standards and 21st century learning innovations The text and its authors work from the assumption that the most advanced learners need a qualitatively different design of learning experiences in order to develop their potential into outstanding achievement answering the question How should we design learning experiences for our most advanced academic students in the foundational curriculum areas This book provides the most contemporary thinking about how to design in depth courses of study in the foundational curriculum areas with a high degree of complexity and advanced content The book includes chapters articulating specific design components like creative thinking critical thinking and authentic research but also subject specific chapters in mathematics language arts science and social studies to demonstrate application of those design components
