Contextualizing Angela Davis Joy James, 2023-12-28 Angela Davis is iconic as an international figure but few recognize the educational political and ideological contexts that formed the public persona Excavating layers of networks activists academics polemicists and funders across the ideological spectrum Joy James studies the paradigms and platforms that leveraged Angela Davis into recognition as an activist and radical intellectual Beginning in Alabama in 1944 with Davis's birthplace and ending in California in 1970 with a surrogate political family James investigates context in order to better understand the agency and identity of Davis Her chronology marks key events relevant to Davis Black communities and the US AntiBlack repression under Jim Crow Black bourgeois southern families revolutionaries elite education communist parties international travels undergrad and graduate schooling all interconnect and play a part in Davis's rise in stature from persecution as a UC graduate student to the UC Presidential chair some three decades later Set against the backdrop of 21st century US democracy and the rise of neofascists James highlights of the centrality of those considered ancillary to US liberation movements She unpacks the contradictions of iconography and revolutionary agency and shows how a triumphal figure from a symbolic era of struggle became the icon of the rare peoples victory Conversations with Angela Davis Sharon Lynette Jones, 2021-07-29 When Angela Davis b 1944 was placed on the FBI's Ten Most Wanted list in 1970 and after she successfully gained acquittal in the 1972 trial that garnered national and international attention she became one of the most recognizable and iconic figures in the twentieth century An outspoken advocate for the oppressed and exploited she has written extensively about the intersections between race class and gender Black liberation and the US prison system Conversations with Angela Davis seeks to explore Davis's role as an educator scholar and activist who continues to engage in important and significant social justice work Featuring seventeen interviews ranging from the 1970s to the present day the volume chronicles Davis's life and her involvement with and influence on important and significant historical and cultural events Davis comments on a range of topics relevant to social economic and political issues from national and international contexts and taken together the interviews explore how her views have evolved over the past several decades The volume provides insight on Davis's relationships with such organizations as the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee the Communist Party the Green Party and Critical Resistance and how Davis has fought for racial gender and social and economic equality in the US and abroad Conversations with Angela Davis also addresses her ongoing work in the prison
