culture of each period to the arts in general and to painting architecture and the tea ceremony in particular Above all her account brings alive a world in which mosses hold the warm promise of spring and hope in their velvet depths in which the juxtaposition of pools and rocks invite meditation where sunny slopes convey the calm of centuries and in which flowering cherry trees are viewed by moonlight with tall lanterns throwing soft light on masses of flowers seen against the starry darkness of the sky The work includes chapters on Heian gardens the gardens of the Fujiwara period the princely gardens of Tokugawa times and Zen landscapes along with sixty four pages of illustrations including many rare photographs Practical and inspirational no other work so perfectly captures the spirituality beauty and complex simplicity of these gardens that link heaven and earth
