Aesthetic And Artistic Autonomy Bloomsbury Studies In Philosophy:

Aesthetic and Artistic Autonomy Owen Hulatt, 2013-08-15 Whether art can be wholly autonomous has been repeatedly challenged in the modern history of aesthetics. In this collection of specially commissioned chapters, a team of experts discuss the extent to which art can be explained purely in terms of aesthetic categories. Covering examples from Philosophy, Music, and Art History, and drawing on continental and analytic sources, this volume clarifies the relationship between artworks and extra-aesthetic considerations including historic, cultural, or economic factors. It presents a comprehensive overview of the question of aesthetic autonomy, exploring its relevance to both philosophy and the comprehension of specific artworks themselves. By closely examining how the creation of artworks and our judgements of these artworks relate to society and history, Aesthetic and Artistic Autonomy provides an insightful and sustained discussion of a major question in aesthetic philosophy.

Michel Meyer's Problematology Nick Turnbull, 2014-04-10 In today's society, everything is in question. The reflexive questioning of modernity has fundamentally problematized society, including philosophy, which has experienced a crisis of metaphysics. Michel Meyer's problematology answers this crisis by questioning, questioning, unfolding a new way of doing philosophy with special relevance for the study of society. In this first ever extended treatment of Meyer's work, Nick Turnbull examines the main features of problematology, including the principle of questioning and the deduction of an original conception of difference based on the question-answer relationship. Turnbull shows how these concepts produce new perspectives in the philosophy of the emotions, history, meaning, politics, rhetoric, and science. He applies Meyer's ideas to key questions in the philosophy of social science, showing how problematology offers important insights for understanding contemporary society. The book compares problematology with the work of well-known thinkers including Bourdieu, Castoriadis, Collingwood, Derrida, Dewey, Gadamer, Heidegger, and Lyotard. Turnbull uses problematology and rhetoric to explain how meaning is constructed through practice in the negotiation of social distance.

The Dialectic of Taste David Michalski, 2015-07-14 The Dialectic of Taste examines the aesthetic economy in the context of economic crises. It explains how a new concern for aesthetics, seen in artisan markets, was born out of the ashes of McDonaldization to become a potent force today, capable of both regulating social identity and sparking social change.

The Dialectics of Aesthetic Agency Ayon Maharaj, 2013-01-03 This study examines how key figures in the German aesthetic tradition—Kant, Schelling, Friedrich Schlegel, Hegel, and Adorno—attempted to think through the powers and limits of art in post-Enlightenment modernity. Ayon Maharaj argues that the aesthetic speculations of these thinkers provide the conceptual resources for a timely dialectical defense of aesthetic agency: art's capacity to make available uniquely valuable modes of experience that escape the purview of Enlightenment scientific rationality. Blending careful philosophical analysis with an intellectual historian's attention to the broader cultural resonance of philosophical arguments, Maharaj has two interrelated aims. He provides challenging new interpretations of the aesthetic philosophies of Kant, Schelling, Schlegel, Hegel, and Adorno by focusing on aspects of their thought that have been neglected or misunderstood in Anglo American and German scholarship He demonstrates that their subtle investigations into the nature and scope of aesthetic agency have far reaching implications for contemporary discourse on the arts The Dialectics of Aesthetic Agency is an important and original contribution to scholarship on the German aesthetic tradition and to the broader field of aesthetics The Cognitive Value of Philosophical Fiction Jukka

Mikkonen,2013-02-14 Can literary fictions convey significant philosophical views understood in terms of propositional knowledge This study addresses the philosophical value of literature by examining how literary works impart philosophy truth and knowledge and to what extent the works should be approached as communications of their authors Beginning with theories of fiction it examines the case against the prevailing pretence and make believe theories of fiction hostile to propositional theories of literary truth Tackling further arguments against the cognitive function and value of literature this study illustrates how literary works can contribute to knowledge by making assertions and suggestions and by providing hypotheses for the reader to assess Through clear analysis of the concept of the author the role of the authorial intention and the different approaches to the meaning of a literary work this study provides an historical survey to the cognitivist anti cognitivist dispute introducing contemporary trends in the discussion before presenting a novel approach to recognizing the cognitive function of literature An important contribution to philosophical studies of literature and knowledge Art,

Language and Figure in Merleau-Ponty Rajiv Kaushik,2013-09-12 Art Language and Figure in Merleau Ponty Excursions in Hyper Dialectic considers Merleau Ponty s later ontology of language in the light of his figured philosophy which places the work of art at the centre of its investigation Kaushik argues that since for Merleau Ponty the work of art actualizes a sensible ontology that would otherwise be invisible to the history of dialectics it undermines the fundamental difference between being and linguistic structures Art Language and Figure in Merleau Ponty takes up the radical task of the figured philosophy to render sensible and linguistic spaces prior to the thought of their separation Kaushik situates Merleau Ponty s criticisms of Saussure s linguistic system as well as a more general repudiation of the act of inscribing in favour of an abstracted textual meaning in this context Following the artists most important to Merleau Ponty s own writings on art such as Paul Klee and his fascination with hieroglyphics and extending these analyses to more recent 21st Century artists such as Cy Twombly Kaushik takes an excursion into the places where art and language image and text drawing and writing figure and discourse are interlaced in Merleau Ponty s last ontology In view of these intersections Kaushik ultimately argues the work of art gives us the spaces where the possibilities of philosophy both past and future reside As the first sustained treatment into the relationship between art and language this is an important contribution to Merleau Ponty s philosophy and scholars of aesthetics The Science of Right in Leibniz's Moral and Political Philosophy Christopher Johns,2013-10-10 A new understanding of the foundations of Gottfried Leibniz s moral and political philosophy based on formal deontic principles rather than consequentialism Nietzsche as a Scholar of Antiquity Anthony K. Jensen,Helmut Heit,2014-01-30 Typically the first decade of Friedrich Nietzsche's career is considered a sort of prologue to his mature thinking. Yet his philological articles, lectures, and notebooks on Ancient Greek culture and thought, much of which has received insufficient scholarly attention, were never intended to serve as a preparatory ground for future thought. Nietzsche's early scholarship was intended to express his insights into the character of antiquity. Many of those insights are not only important for better understanding Nietzsche; they remain vital for understanding antiquity today. Interdisciplinary in scope and international in perspective, this volume investigates Nietzsche as a scholar of antiquity, offering the first thorough examination of his articles, lectures, notebooks on Ancient Greek culture and thought in English. With eleven original chapters by some of the leading Nietzsche scholars and classicists from around the world and with reproductions of two definitive essays, this book analyzes Nietzsche's scholarly methods and aims, his understanding of antiquity, and his influence on the history of classical studies. The Allure of Things: Process and Object in Contemporary Philosophy Roland Faber, Andrew Goffey, 2014-05-22

The Allure of Things: Process and Object in Contemporary Philosophy contests the view that metaphysics is something to be overcome. By focusing on process and object-oriented ontology (OOO) and rejecting the privileging of human existence over the existence of non-human objects, this collection explores philosophy's concern with things themselves. Interest in Latour, Stengers, Whitehead, Harman, and Meillassoux has prompted a resurgence of ontological questions outside the traditional subject-object framework of modern critical thought. This new collection consequently proposes a pragmatic and pluralist approach to modes of existence. Drawing together an international range of leading scholars, The Allure of Things fully covers the similarities between OOO and process philosophy and is an essential addition to the literature on metaphysics. The Philosophy of Art: The Question of Definition Tiziana Andina, 2013-04-11

The Philosophy of Art: The Question of Definition Drawing on the philosophies of art developed by the continental authors and studies of Anglo-American philosophers, this book presents a panorama of the philosophy of art. It discusses definitions offered from the analytical school, including Arthur Danto's representationalism, Derrida's theories of artefactualism, Dickie's institutional and procedural theories, and Levinson's historical and cultural theories. From the continental theories, it reflects on Hegel's notion of philosophy of art, Martin Heidegger's and Hans-Georg Gadamer's hermeneutic tradition, and Alexius Meinong's theory of objects. This range of definitions and theories are judged and defended using a form of representationalism that begins with the results of Arthur Danto's thinking and integrates the aesthetic reflection of the Baumgarten School. The result is not only a presentation of philosophy of art from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day, but a study that proposes a theory capable of synthesizing the finest contributions of the analytic and continental traditions.
