Order your copy of Affiliate Marketing Simplified today Affiliate Marketing Simplified Handbook For Beginners Anais Sawayn, 2024-02-16 Affiliate marketing involves earning a commission by promoting and selling another person's or company's products. Affiliates find products they like, promote them, and earn a portion of the profits from each sale. This is tracked through special links between websites. Publishers earn commissions by endorsing products or services from retailers or advertisers through affiliate links. They receive payouts for specific actions like generating sales, leads, clicks, or app downloads. Joining affiliate programs is often free, eliminating high startup expenses. With a successful strategy, affiliate marketing can evolve from a side gig to a lucrative online business generating a substantial income.
