Anderson Anderson Architecture And Construction:

Anderson Anderson, Architecture and Construction Mark Anderson, Peter Anderson, Cameron Schoepp, Andrew Zago, 2000 Brothers Mark and Peter Anderson have been building things together since their boyhood days in Tacoma Washington Their work as architects carpenters builders and general contractors encompasses the design and construction of residential commercial and public art projects Anderson Anderson is noted for its highly customized work and its prefabricated systems for large scale production Informed by their experiences as carpenters and influenced by place and landscape mud clouds and rain in the case of the Pacific Northwest the work of Mark and Peter Anderson highlights experimentation and adventure Anderson Anderson Architecture and Construction delves into the process of construction as a source of creative imagination and discovery from the hands on material process of making things to the lessons learned from large scale projects to the development of new construction technologies This book explores the simple beauty of their finished products as much as the process of getting there the unglossed stories of young architects working learning traveling and having fun The book features over 25 projects in the Pacific Northwest Hawaii Alaska Texas and Japan 2000 Architects Aisha

Hasanovic, 2006 Doctor Haydock the resident GP of St Mary Mead hopes to cheer up Miss Marple as she recovers from the flu with a little story The tale revolves around the return of the prodigal son of Major Laxton the devilishly handsome Harry Laxton Harry after leading a life of childish indiscretions and falling head over heels for the village tobacconist's daughter has made good and returned to lay claim to his tumbling childhood home and introduce the village to his beautiful new wife But the villagers are prone to gossip about young Harry's past and one person in particular cannot forgive him for tearing down the old house Will Miss Marple's acumen be up to the task of solving the story Prefabulous World Sheri

Koones, 2014-04-15 A stunning look at how people around the world are using prefabrication to create energy efficient sustainable and stylish homes Prefabulous World is the fourth book in Sheri Koones's revolutionary Prefabulous series Presenting an international look at sustainable home design it explores a compelling range of design styles and cutting edge green technologies The rising cost of fuel and the growing commitment to protect the environment have sparked exciting innovations in prefab home construction around the world Showcasing many of the unlimited possibilities offered by prefabrication to build increasingly energy efficient homes Prefabulous World features fifty sophisticated examples of eco friendly home design in Australia New Zealand Japan Canada the United States England Germany South Africa and beyond As we look into the future it is clear the more and more intelligent materials and energies will be brought to hand as preassembled optimized components and systems and they will be beautiful just witness the homes we enjoy discovering in this lovely book William McDonough designer advisor thought leader and co author of Cradle to Cradle and The Upcycle

Dwell, 2001-04 At Dwell we're staging a minor revolution We think that it's possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being

We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines

Prefab Architecture Ryan E. Architecture and Building, 1926

Offramp Alan Loomis, Tricia Sanedrin, Yuval Yasky, 2000-03 The latest issue of Offramp a journal produced by the Southern California Institute of Architecture SCI Arc uses a series of essays conversations and projects to investigate the numerous opportunities that architectural practitioners have created for themselves given that design is undervalued and often invisible in our society Some of the voices presented in this collection are ADOBE LA a design group whose work addresses the Latino American communities in Los Angeles Sam Mockbee who founded Rural Studio in Hale County Alabama Chip Minnick whose project Nike Shelter imagines an intimate partnership between architects and global corporations HEDGE Design Collective a group of young practitioners organized in a collaborative structure in order to pool resources and create ever changing project teams and Jonathan Hill whose idea of the Illegal Architect subverts the codes and conventions of the profession by claiming that occupying architecture can be an act of design in its own right

The Perfect $100,000 House Karrie Jacobs, 2007-05-29 A home of one's own has always been a cornerstone of the American dream fulfilling like nothing else the desire for comfort financial security independence and with a little luck even a touch of distinctive character or even beauty But what we have come to regard as almost a national birthright has recently begun to elude more and more prospective homebuyers Where housing is concerned affordable and well crafted rarely exist together Or do they For years founding editor in chief of Dwell magazine and noted architecture and design critic Karrie Jacobs had been confronting this question both professionally and personally Finally she decided to see for herself whether it was possible to build the home of her own dreams for a reasonable sum The Perfect 100 000 House is the story of that quest a search that takes her from a two week crash course in housebuilding in Vermont to a road trip of some 14 000 miles In the course of her journey Jacobs encounters a group of intrepid and visionary architects and builders working to revolutionize the way Americans think about homes about construction techniques and about the very idea of community By her trip's end Jacobs has not only had a practical and sobering education in the economics aesthetics and politics of homebuilding but has been spurred to challenge her own deeply held beliefs about what constitutes an ideal home The Perfect 100 000 House is a compelling and inspiring demonstration that we can live in homes that are sensible modest and beautiful
