Puškin, Johannes von Guenther, 1925 The Correspondence of Walter Benjamin, 1910-1940 Walter Benjamin, 2019-04-05 Called the most important critic of his time by Hannah Arendt Walter Benjamin has only become more influential over the years as his work has assumed a crucial place in current debates over the interactions of art culture and meaning A natural and extraordinary talent for letter writing was one of the most captivating facets of his nature writes Gershom Scholem in his Foreword to this volume and Benjamin s correspondence reveals the evolution of some of his most powerful ideas while also offering an intimate picture of Benjamin himself and the times in which he lived Writing at length to Scholem and Theodor Adorno and exchanging letters with Rainer Maria Rilke Hannah Arendt Max Brod and Bertolt Brecht Benjamin elaborates on his ideas about metaphor and language He reflects on literary figures from Kafka to Karl Kraus and expounds his personal attitudes toward such subjects as Marxism and French national character Providing an indispensable tool for any scholar wrestling with Benjamin s work The Correspondence of Walter Benjamin 1910 1940 is a revelatory look at the man behind much of the twentieth century s most significant criticism Noir and Blanchot William S. Allen, 2020-01-23 In dark or desperate times the artwork is placed in a difficult position Optimism seems na ve while pessimism is no better During some of the most demanding years of the 20th century two distinctive bodies of work sought to respond to this problem the writings of Maurice Blanchot and American film noir Both were seeking not only to respond to the times but also to critically reflect them but both were often criticised for their own darkness Understanding how this darkness became the means of responding to the darkness of the times is the focus of Noir and Blanchot which examines key films from the period including Double Indemnity and Vertigo alongside Blanchot s writings particularly his 1948 narrative Death Sentence What emerges from this investigation is the complex manner in which these works disrupt the experience of time and the event and in doing so expose an entirely different mode of material expression *D.
