Animal Studies An Introduction Animal Studies An Introduction:

Animal Studies Paul Waldau, 2013-03-28 The field requires both learning and unlearning to develop forms of critical thinking that are scientifically informed and ethically sensitive Critical Animal Studies Dawne McCance, 2013-01-01 Comprehensive overview of key theoretical approaches and issues in the field Animals and Society Margo DeMello, 2021-04-13 Human animal studies is an interdisciplinary field that explores the spaces that animals occupy in human social and cultural worlds It examines the interactions humans and animals have with each other and the ways animal lives intersect with human societies Since existing social orders rely on the exploitation of animals to serve human needs the questions posed by human animal studies touch upon a wide range of fundamental issues Animals and Society provides a broad overview of this rapidly growing field Margo DeMello offers students and scholars a holistic and comprehensive picture of the state of inquiry into the relationships that exist between humans and other animals She considers interactions between animals and humans in social organizations such as the family the legal system and political and religious institutions A major focus is the social construction of animals in world cultures and the way in which these social meanings are used to reinforce and perpetuate hierarchical human relationships such as racism sexism and class privilege The book also examines how different human groups construct a range of identities for themselves and for others through animals This second edition of Animals and Society is fully updated and expanded throughout enhancing the book's relevance for student and activist readers alike It includes many new international examples all new case studies and updated supplementary readings Teaching the Animal Margo DeMello, 2010 Split into three sections Teaching the Animal provides in depth analysis of the nature of the discipline the resources available expectations of students and faculty and a number of sample curricula in the fields of humanities social sciences and the natural sciences Animal Studies, 1903 Animal Studies Matthew R. Calarco, 2020-09-29 Prefaced with a brief introduction to the field of animal studies the text explores the key influential terms topics and debates which have had a major impact on the field and that students are most likely to encounter in their animal studies classes Animal Studies provides a guide to key concepts in the burgeoning interdisciplinary field of animal studies laid out in A Z format While Human Animal Studies and Critical Animal Studies are the main frameworks that inform the bulk of the writings in animal studies and the key concepts discussed in the volume other approaches such as anthrozoology and cognitive ethology are also explored The entries in the volume attend to the differences in ongoing debates among scholars and activists showing that what is commonly called animal studies is far from a unified body of work A full bibliography of sources is included at the end of the book along with an extensive index The book will be a valuable guide to undergraduate and postgraduate students in geography philosophy sociology anthropology women's studies and other related disciplines Seasoned researchers will find the book helpful when researching topics outside of their specialization Outside of academia it will be of interest to activists as well as professional organizations

Human Animal Studies Fiona Probyn-Rapsey, 2015-02-01 Human relationships to animals both real animals and the ideas attached to animality have shifted over the last century Pet ownership is on the increase wildlife has gone from being a threat to being threatened and animal science ruptures traditional ideas about animal capabilities and human exceptionalism At the same time philosophy literature and popular cultural forms inspire new questions about what it means to be human in the time of humanimal coexistence The field of Human Animal Studies accounts for the diverse contemporary interplay of animals and humans Human Animal Studies brings animal science into conversation with humanities and social scientists and that unique coming together produces an extraordinarily dynamic and rapidly expanding field of inquiry This book equips students to enter this field by mapping key multidisciplinary ideas debates and approaches Teaching the Animal Margo DeMello, 2010 Originally published as part of Teaching the animal human animal studies across the disciplines The Oxford Handbook of Animal Studies Linda Kalof, 2017-02-01 Intellectual struggles with the animal question how humans can rethink and reconfigure their relationships with other animals first began to take hold in the 1970s Over the next forty years scholars from a wide range of fields would make sweeping reevaluations of the relationship between humans and other animals The Oxford Handbook of Animal Studies brings these diverse evaluations together for the first time paying special attention to the commodification of animals the degradation of the natural world and a staggering loss of animal habitat and species extinction and the increasing need for humans to coexist with other animals in urban rural and natural contexts Linda Kalof maps these themes into the five major categories that structure this volume Animals in the Landscape of Law Politics and Public Policy Animal Intentionality Agency and Reflexive Thinking Animals as Objects in Science Food Spectacle and Sport Animals in Cultural Representations and Animals in Ecosystems Written by international scholars with backgrounds in philosophy law history English art sociology geography archaeology environmental studies cultural studies and animal advocacy the thirty chapters in this handbook investigate key issues and concepts central to understanding our current relationship with other animals and the potential for coexistence in an ecological community of living beings

Human-Animal Studies Margo DeMello, 2012 An exhaustive listing of books journals articles films conferences college programs organizations and websites from the new and exciting discipline of Human Animal studies The information was gathered by leading academics in the humanities the social sciences and the natural sciences this is the only reference of its kind This project was completed in conjunction with the book Teaching the Animal
