Arguments about Animal Ethics Greg Goodale, Jason Edward Black, 2010-03-08 Bringing together the expertise of rhetoricians in English and communication as well as media studies scholars Arguments about Animal Ethics delves into the rhetorical and discursive practices of participants in controversies over the use of nonhuman animals for meat entertainment fur and vivisection Both sides of the debate are carefully analyzed as the contributors examine how stakeholders persuade or fail to persuade audiences about the ethics of animal rights or the value of using animals The essays in this volume cover a wide range of topics such as the campaigns waged by People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals including the sexy vegetarian and nude campaigns greyhound activists the Corolla Wild Horse Fund food manufacturers and the biomedical research industry as well as communication across the human nonhuman

Arguments about Animal Ethics insightful analysis of the animal rights movement will appeal to communication scholars as well as those interested in social change Animals and War Ryan Hediger, 2012-11-01 Animals and War is the first collection of essays to study its topic Using sociology history anthropology and cultural studies it analyzes a wide range of phenomena and exposes the often paradoxical contours of human animal relationships Seeing Animals after Derrida Sarah Bezan, James Tink, 2017-11-27 This volume charts a new course in animal studies that re examines Jacques Derrida s enduring thought on the visualization of the animal in his seminal Cerisy Conference from 1997 The Animal That Therefore I Am Building new proximities with the animal in and through and at times in spite of the visual apparatus Seeing Animals after Derrida investigates how the recent turn in animal studies toward new materialism speculative realism and object oriented ontology prompts a renewed engagement with Derrida s animal philosophy In taking up the matter of Derrida s treatment of animality for the current epoch the contributors to this book each present a case for new philosophical approaches and aesthetic paradigms that challenge the ocularcentrism of Western culture Species Matters Marianne DeKoven, Michael Lundblad, 2012 Why has the academy struggled to link advocacy for animals to advocacy for various human groups Within cultural studies in which advocacy can take the form of a theoretical intervention scholars have resisted arguments that add species to race class gender sexuality disability and other human identity categories as a site for critical analysis Species Matters considers whether cultural studies should pay more attention to animal advocacy and whether in turn animal studies should pay more attention to questions raised by cultural theory The contributors to this volume explore these issues particularly in relation to the humane treatment of animals and various human groups and the implications both theoretical and practical of blurring the distinction between the human and the animal They address important questions raised by the history of representing humans as the only animal capable of acting humanely and provide a framework for reconsidering the nature of humane discourse whether in theory literary and cultural texts or current advocacy movements outside of the academy
