Qur'an of the Oppressed Shadaab Rahemtulla, 2017-02-09 This study analyses the commentaries of four Muslim intellectuals who have turned to scripture as a liberating text to confront an array of problems from patriarchy racism and empire to poverty and interreligious communal violence Shadaab Rahemtulla considers the exegeses of the South African Farid Esack b 1956 the Indian Asghar Ali Engineer 1939 2013 the African American Amina Wadud b 1952 and the Pakistani American Asma Barlas b 1950 Rahemtulla examines how these intellectuals have been able to expound this seventh century Arabian text in a socially liberating way addressing their own lived realities of oppression and thus contexts that are worlds removed from that of the text's immediate audience Through a close reading of their works he underlines the importance of both the ethico social content of the Qur'an and their usage of new and innovative reading practices This work provides a rich analysis of the thought ways of specific Muslim intellectuals thereby substantiating a broadly framed school of thought Rahemtulla draws out their specific and general importance without displaying an uncritical sympathy He sheds light on the impact of modern exegetical commentary which is more self consciously concerned with historical context and present realities In a mutually reinforcing way this work thus illuminates both the role of agency and hermeneutical approaches in modern Islamic thought
