Fredericks, 2000-10-15 Tap into the budding investigators within youngsters and help them connect to the incredible array of social studies knowledge and resources on the Internet The 75 lessons in this book guide you and your students in exciting Internet projects that target specific content objectives for specific social studies concepts Each unit includes activities questions and lists of relevant Web sites and related literature A great way to motivate students build online technology skills and increase knowledge Cognitive Perspectives on Israelite Identity Dermot Anthony Nestor, 2010-10-08 Cognitive Perspectives on Israelite Identity breaks new ground in the study of ethnic identity in the ancient world through the articulation of an explicitly cognitive perspective In presenting a view of ethnicity as an epistemological rather than an ontological entity this work seeks to correct the pronounced tendency towards analytical groupism in the academic literature Challenging what Pierre Bourdieu has called our primary inclination to think the world in a substantialist manner this study seeks to break with the vernacular categories and commonsense primordialisms encoded within the Biblical texts whilst at the same time accounting for their tenacious hold on our social and political imagination It is the recognition of the performative and reifying potential of these categories of ethno political practice that disqualifies their appropriation as categories of social analysis Colonial Fantasies Meyda Yegenoglu, 1998-04-30 In this 1998 book Meyda Yegenoglu investigates the intersection between post colonial and feminist criticism focusing on the Western fascination with the veiled women of the Orient She examines the veil as a site of fantasy and of nationalist ideologies and discourses of gender identity analyzing travel literature anthropological and literary texts to reveal the hegemonic colonial identity of the desire to penetrate the veiled surface of otherness Representations of cultural difference and sexual difference are shown to be inextricably linked and the figure of the Oriental woman to have functioned as the veiled interior of Western identity Conquest and Construction Mark DeLancey, 2016-06-21 In Conquest and Construction Mark Dike DeLancey investigates the palace architecture of northern Cameroon a region that was conquered in the early nineteenth century by primarily semi nomadic pastoralist Muslim Ful e forces and incorporated as the largest emirate of the Sokoto Caliphate Palace architecture is considered first and foremost as political in nature and therefore as responding not only to the needs and expectations of the conquerors but also to those of the largely sedentary agricultural non Muslim conquered peoples who constituted the majority population In the process of reconciling the cultures of these various constituents new architectural forms and local identities were constructed Negotiating Personal Autonomy Sophie Elixhauser, 2018-03-09 Negotiating Personal Autonomy offers a detailed ethnographic examination of personal autonomy and social life in East Greenland Examining verbal and non verbal communication in interpersonal encounters Elixhauser argues that social life in the region is characterized by relationships based upon a particular care to respect other people s personal autonomy Exploring this high valuation of personal autonomy she asserts that a person in East Greenland

is a highly permeable entity that is neither bounded by the body nor even necessarily human In so doing she also puts forward a new approach to the anthropological study of communication An important addition to the corpus of ethnographic literature about the people of East Greenland Elixhauser s work will be of interest to scholars of the Arctic and the North Greenland social and cultural anthropology and human geography Her conclusion that in East Greenland the inner self cannot be separated from the public persona will also be of interest to scholars working on the self across the humanities and social sciences El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2003 ,2003 Algeria Allan Carpenter, Tom Balow, 1978 Introduces the history geography people culture and government of Algeria the second largest country on the African continent

Algeria Martin Hintz, 2017 Multicultural Children's Literature Donna E. Norton, 2009 With the growing number of ethnic minority students in public schools it is very important for teachers librarians and all those who work with children to have an understanding of appropriate multicultural literature This book and the literature selections are designed to develop heightened sensitivity and understanding of people from various cultures and traditions through the selection of carefully chosen literature It includes a balance of research about the culture and the literature a discussion of authentic literature for students from early childhood through young adults and teaching activities designed to develop higher cognitive abilities The book uses a unique five phase approach for the study of multicultural literature that has been field tested School Library Journal ,2006
