All Is Never Said The Story Of Odette Harper Hines:

All is Never Said Judith Rollins, 1995 With intelligence insight and humor Odette Harper Hines describes her life a life that reversed the pattern of the Great Migration by beginning in prosperity in the urban North and moving into the small town South Recorded by Judith Rollins over eight years this intimate narrative is an unusual collaboration between two African American women who represent two generations of civil rights activists Born in New York into a comfortable family Hines activism began in the Abyssinian Baptist Church in her teens and continued throughout her life as she witnessed the Great Depression in Harlem worked on the WPA Writers Project became publicity director of the NAACP and volunteered for the Red Cross in Europe during WWII When she moved to Louisiana in 1946 she continued to challenge racial injustice and risked her life to house civil rights workers in the early 1960s Rollins among them She later started and directed the Headstart Program in her parish Throughout this narrative Hines describes her relationships with such figures as Mary McLeod Bethune Adam Clayton Powell Walter White Thurgood Marshall Ella Baker Marcus Garvey Claude McKay Ralph Ellison and many others Yet Hines memoir is not only about her public life She courageously reveals her personal life and private pain Twenty eight photographs mostly from Hines family album accentuate this oral history that is as Rollins states in her Introduction a complex and textured portrait of an extraordinary twentieth century American woman Author note Judith Rollins is Associate Professor of Africana Studies and Sociology at Wellesley College and the author of Between Women Domestics and Their Employers Temple

Ella Baker and the Black Freedom Movement, Second Edition Barbara Ransby, 2024-10-15 One of the most important African American leaders of the twentieth century and perhaps the most influential woman in the civil rights movement Ella Baker 1903 1986 was an activist whose remarkable career spanned fifty years and touched thousands of lives A gifted grassroots organizer Baker shunned the spotlight in favor of vital behind the scenes work that helped power the Black freedom struggle Making her way in predominantly male circles while maintaining relationships with a vibrant group of women students and activists Baker was a national officer and key figure in the NAACP a founder of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and a prime mover in the creation of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee In this definitive biography Barbara Ransby chronicles Baker's long and rich career revealing her complexity radical democratic worldview and enduring influence on group centered grassroots activism Beyond documenting an extraordinary life Ransby paints a vivid picture of the African American fight for justice and its intersections with other progressive struggles worldwide throughout the twentieth century

Our Minds on Freedom Shannon Frystak, 2009-12 Our Minds on Freedom examines the role of women as organizers and leaders in the black struggle for equality in Louisiana Using gender as a basic organizing principle in combination with other systems of inequality race and class it challenges the notion that men led women organized and places female activism regardless of gendered expectations at the center The author concludes that women were not passive participants in the Louisiana civil rights movement but leaders and heroines in their own right Grassroots Warriors Nancy A. Naples, 2014-01-14 Who are the grassroots warriors on the front lines of the war on poverty Through in depth interviews Nancy Naples presents the voices of over sixty women African American Puerto Rican and white European American who have fought for social and economic justice in the low income neighborhoods of New York City and Philadelphia These women as community workers and activist mothers contribute vital and often unpaid services to their communities offering complex political perspectives and empowering others Naples reconceptualizes labor mothering and politics from the standpoint of women committed to work and politically organize on behalf of low income urban communities Her analysis reveals significant legacies from past social movements and examines how gender ethnicity and class influence political consciousness and practice Southern Black Women in the Modern Civil Rights Movement Bruce A. Glasrud, Merline Pitre, 2013-03-28 Throughout the South black women were crucial to the Civil Rights Movement serving as grassroots and organizational leaders They protested participated sat in mobilized created energized led particular efforts and served as bridge builders to the rest of the community Ignored at the time by white politicians and the media alike with few exceptions they worked behind the scenes to effect the changes all in the movement sought Until relatively recently historians too have largely ignored their efforts Although African American women mobilized in Louisiana History, 2003 New York, Chicago, Los Angeles Janet L. Abu-Lughod, 1999 New York Chicago and Los Angeles for all their differences they are quintessentially American cities They are also among the handful of cities on the earth that can be called global Janet L Abu Lughod s book is the first to compare them in an ambitious in depth study that takes into account each city s unique history following their development from their earliest days to their current status as players on the global stage Center News, 1989 The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America Journal of Women's History, 1997
