

An illustration of a globe with a yellow and orange gradient. Two figures are on the globe: a larger figure in a colorful, multi-colored outfit with a red feather in their hair, and a smaller figure in a blue outfit. They are standing on a dark, horizontal line that represents the equator or a similar line of latitude. The larger figure is standing and looking towards the smaller figure, who is sitting or kneeling. The background is a soft, hazy yellow and orange.
