Black Lamb And Grey Falcon Penguin Classics:

Black Lamb and Grey Falcon Rebecca West, 1994 Shares the author's impressions of Yugoslavia and describes the history of the region and the sources of its political problems Black Lamb and Grey Falcon Rebecca West, 2007-01-30 Rebecca West's magnum opus one of the great books of our time The New Yorker Written on the brink of World War II Rebecca West's classic examination of the history people and politics of Yugoslavia illuminates a region that is still a focus of international concern A magnificent blend of travel journal cultural commentary and historical insight Black Lamb and Grey Falcon probes the troubled history of the Balkans and the uneasy relationships among its ethnic groups The landscape and the people of Yugoslavia are brilliantly observed as West untangles the tensions that rule the country's history as well as its daily life For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators Black Lambs & Grey Falcons John B. Allcock, Antonia Young, 2000 Revised and Updated with a New Introduction During the 19th century the Balkan countries became the subject of a rather romantic fascination for the public at large This vision of the area has been created in large measure by the writing of women travelers such as those represented in this volume The achievements of these women are quite remarkable in many cases their travels were adventurous and even dangerous reaching into parts of the countryside which were remote and hardly known to outsiders Not only as travelers but also in the fields of medical and military service scholarship and education journalism and literature did these women contribute in very significant ways to the expansion of women's horizons and to the attempt to gain greater freedom for women in society in general Contents Editorial Introduction Black Lambs and Grey Falcons Outward and Inward Frontiers Two Victorian Ladies and Bosnian Realities 1861 1875 G M MacKenzie and A P Irby Edith Durham Traveller and Publicist Edith Durham as a Collector Emily Balch Balkan Traveller Peace Worker and Nobel Laureate The Work of British Medical Women in Serbia during and after the First World War Captain Flora Sandes A Case Study in the Social Construction of Gender in a Serbian Context Rose Wilder Lane 1886 1968 Rebecca West Gerda and the Sense of Process Margaret Masson Hasluck Louisa Rayner An Englishwoman's Experiences in Wartime Yugoslavia Mercia MacDermott A Woman of the Frontier An Anthropologist in the Village Bucks Brides and Useless Baggage Women's Quest for a Role in their Balkan Travels Constructing the Balkans Women Travellers in the Balkans A Bibliographical Guide John B Allcock is head of the Research Unit in South East European Studies and is based in the Interdisciplinary Human Studies department at the University of Bradford Antonia Young is a member of the Department for Sociology and Anthropology at Colgate University New York Penguin Classics Penguin (Firm), 2001 To End a War Richard Holbrooke, 2011-01-26 When President Clinton sent Richard Holbrooke to Bosnia as America's chief negotiator in late 1995 he took a gamble that would eventually redefine his presidency But there was no saying then at the height of the war that Holbrooke's mission would succeed The odds were strongly against it As passionate as he was controversial Holbrooke believed that the only way to bring peace to the Balkans was through a complex blend of American leadership aggressive and creative diplomacy and a willingness to use force if necessary in the cause for peace This was not a universally popular view Resistance was fierce within the United Nations and the chronically divided Contact Group and in Washington where many argued that the United States should not get more deeply involved This book is Holbrooke's gripping inside account of his mission of the decisive months when belatedly and reluctantly but ultimately decisively the United States reasserted its moral authority and leadership and ended Europe's worst war in over half a century To End a War reveals many important new details of how America made this historic decision What George F Kennan has called Holbrooke's heroic efforts were shaped by the enormous tragedy with which the mission began when three of his four team members were killed during their first attempt to reach Sarajevo In Belgrade Sarajevo Zagreb Paris Athens and Ankara and throughout the dramatic roller coaster ride at Dayton he tirelessly imposed cajoled and threatened in the quest to stop the killing and forge a peace agreement Holbrooke's portraits of the key actors from officials in the White House and the U.S. State Department to the leaders in the Balkans are sharp and unforgiving His explanation of how the United States was finally forced to intervene breaks important new ground as does his discussion of the near disaster in the early period of the implementation of the Dayton agreement To End a War is a brilliant portrayal of high wire high stakes diplomacy in one of the toughest negotiations of modern times A classic account of the uses and misuses of American power its lessons go far beyond the boundaries of the Balkans and provide a powerful argument for continued American leadership in the modern world

Critical Lessons Nel Noddings, 2006-05-08 Critical Lessons concentrates on the critical reflective thinking that should be taught in high schools Taking seriously the Socratic advice know thyself it focuses on topics that will help students to understand the forces good and bad that work to socialize them This book argues why critical thinking is necessary in schools because it requires the discussion of critical issues how we learn the psychology of war what it means to make a home advertising and propaganda choosing an occupation gender and religion

Beat Myths in Literature Estíbaliz Encarnación-Pinedo, 2023-09-22 Beat Myths in Literature reassesses the work of women poets associated with the Beat Generation from the critical lens of revisionist discourses Using the metaphor and the critical lens of looking back an act infused with feminist implications after Adrienne Rich 1972 the volume focuses on poetry fiction and autobiographical writing to analyze the different ways in which Beat women used revisionist discourses to refashion the Beat Generation and establish themselves as literary and artistic subjects Offering the first comprehensive study of the use of mythology in the Beat Generation Beat Myths in Literature Revisionist Strategies in Beat Women focuses on the specific re writing or revisioning of mythical texts As such it studies the ways in which Beat poets incorporate mythology into their works both through the feminist reinvention or appropriation of ancient myths but also by debunking more contemporary myths used to contain women in particular social and artistic roles Furthermore this volume expands Rich's notion of revision considering memoirs and autobiographies as factual and fictional reinterpretations of history Seen through the eyes of revisionist studies and the poets investment in personal myth the book establishes new points of entrance into works that allow us to explore the feminist political and poetical relevance of the work of Beat women

Ethnic Identity and Minority Protection Thomas W. Simon, 2012-03-28 In Ethnic Identity and Minority Protection: Designation, Discrimination and Brutalization Thomas W. Simon examines a new framework for considering ethnic conflicts In contrast to the more traditional theories of justice Simon's theory of injustice shifts focus away from group identity toward group harms effectively making many problems such as how to define minorities in international law dramatically more manageable Simon argues that instead of promoting legislative devices like proportional representation for minorities it is more fruitful to seek adjudicative solutions to racial and ethnic related conflicts For example resources could be shifted to quasi-judicial human rights treaty bodies that have adopted an injustice approach This injustice approach provides the foundation for Kosovo's case for remedial secession and helps to sort out the competing entitlement claims of Malays in different countries Indeed the priority of Thomas W. Simon's Ethnic Identity and Minority Protection is to ensure the tales of designation and discrimination told at the beginning of the work do not become the stories of brutalization told at the end In short the challenge tackled in this text is to assure that reason reigns over hate

Scotland in Europe Tom Hubbard, Ronald D. S. Jack, 2006 This volume counters the relative neglect of comparative literature in Scotland by exploring the fortunes of Scottish writing in mainland Europe and conversely the engagement of Scottish literary intellectuals with European texts

The Key to My Neighbor's House Elizabeth Neuffer, 2025-06-25 In Interviewing War Criminals and Their Victims Neuffer explains through the voices of people she follows over the course of a decade how genocide erodes a nation's social and political environment Her characters' stories and their competing notions of justice from searching for the bodies of loved ones to demanding war crime trials to seeking bloody revenge convinces readers that crimes against humanity cannot be resolved by simple talk of forgiveness or through the more common recourse to forgetfulness
