Alister E McGrath And Evangelical Theology A Dynamic Engagement:

Alister E. McGrath and Evangelical Theology Sung Wook Chung, 2003 Alister McGrath is one of the premier evangelical theologians of our day In this book leading evangelical scholars including Gabriel Fackre John Frame William Abraham Gerald Bray and Clark Pinnock use McGrath s work as a lens through which to offer a contemporary assessment of evangelical theology The volume sets McGrath in context and argues that a dynamic brand of evangelical theology such as what his thinking represents is necessary for the evangelical wing of the church to be semper reformanda always reforming Chapters focus on the essence identity strengths weaknesses and future of evangelical theology offering a snapshot of a movement in transition The Interface of Science, Theology, and Religion Dennis Ngien, 2019-03-07 In celebration of Alister E McGrath s sixty fifth birthday in 2018 this Festschrift aims to highlight him as a lauded scholar who exemplifies an interface of science theology and religion It comprises works by McGrath s theological allies and colleagues from diverse ecclesial homes including Graham Ward Oliver Crisp Tony Lane Sung Wook Chung Randall Zachman Veli Matti K rkk inen Jonathan Wilson Jeffrey P Greenman Robert Kolb Sister Benedicta Ward Michael Lloyd Bethany Sollereder and Patrick Franklin Critical but appreciative is the posture with which these contributors engage the wide range of McGrath s own scholarly pursuits and publications This volume edited by Dennis Ngien covers these themes that are central to the life and witness of the church atonement Christology Trinity eschatology mission Reformation science nature culture evangelism and theodicy there is much to ponder and reap here Readers will join with the contributors and pay tribute to McGrath who has risen to a life of significance as a scientist turned theologian professor author Christian apologist and churchman A Critical Examination of the Doctrine of Revelation in Evangelical Theology Carisa A. Ash, 2015-07-14 How God reveals himself is an important matter for Christians especially evangelicals For too long Carisa Ash contends evangelicals have rightly affirmed that God reveals through the created world but then they functionally neglect such revelation In this monograph Ash offers a corrective to this practice by presenting a theology of revelation that explores the commonalities between various forms of revelation world written and spoken word and Incarnate Word Particularly aimed at theologians interested in theological method Ash s study will also benefit people interested in faith and learning or interdisciplinary integration Ash argues that evangelicals must strive to align more closely their affirmations and their practice Her critique of current practices in theological method and integration along with the proposed theology of revelation are designed to help move the conversation forward A Model for Evangelical Theology Graham McFarlane, 2020-09-15 Written by a skilled theologian with over two decades of classroom experience this introduction to evangelical theology explains how connecting to five sources of Christian theology Scripture tradition reason experience and community leads to a richer and deeper understanding of the faith Graham McFarlane calls this the evangelical quintilateral which he recommends as a helpful rubric for teaching theology This integrative model introduces students to the sources themes tasks and goals of evangelical theology making the book ideal for introductory theology courses

The Dynamic Heart in Daily Life Jeremy

Pierre, 2016-10-03 Often our approach in counseling and ministry does not do justice to the rich dynamic way people respond to life. Even those who wish to help people biblically can be lopsided in their approach, missing important aspects of people's experience. Discover how a whole-hearted dynamic relationship with God changes the way people respond to every The Dispensational-Covenantal Rift. R. Todd Mangum, 2007-06-01 This groundbreaking study explores how the fight between dispensationalists and covenant theologians started and how a unique dynamic of personalities and sociological factors enflamed it. Readers may be surprised to discover that even the terminology of dispensationalists and covenant theologians originated in the 1930s; disputes that the majority of the original protagonists on both sides were Presbyterians and that soteriology rather than eschatology was the original bone of contention between them. This study examines how two respective strands of fundamentalism came to identify one another as theological rivals as they each vied for position in their recently formed separatist bodies. The significance of disagreements over dispensationalism is explored in the founding of the Orthodox Presbyterian and Bible Presbyterian churches. And then as the debate traveled southward, the response of the PCUS is examined with special attention given to the consummative reports of an ad hoc committee that found dispensationalism to be out of harmony with the Westminster doctrinal standards. Significant misunderstandings that impeded fruitful dialogue from the beginning are clarified, particularly those that have persisted most stubbornly to the present day. Perhaps most surprising of all, the reader will discover that nearly all of the original points of debate between dispensationalists and covenant theologians have since been resolved as each side has honed its position in light of pertinent critiques. Why has this development gone almost unnoticed? This study suggests an answer and proposes that understanding how the feud began may hold the key to rapprochement today.

Federalism and the Westminster Tradition Mark W. Karlberg, 2006-10-15

More than any other theological tradition, Reformed federalism has recognized the importance of the biblical teaching on the covenants in its system of doctrine. This tradition came to mature confessional status in the writing of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms. The place of the Westminster tradition within the stream of Christian history and theology is remarkable indeed. Westminster not only gained recognition as the epitome of Calvinist teaching at the close of the Protestant Reformation, the middle of the seventeenth century, it also earned the reputation for precision and comprehensiveness in doctrinal formulation. It became the measure by which biblical interpreters defended their systems of doctrine, either in agreement or disagreement with the theology of the Westminster divines. These writings are the climax of three decades of research and study, and they appear as the third in the series of collections published by Wipf and Stock, beginning with Covenant Theology in Reformed Perspective followed by Gospel Grace: The Modern Day Controversy. The critical teaching in dispute in each of these studies is the classic Protestant antithesis between the Law and the Gospel, what serves as the basis for the Reformed doctrine of the twofold covenants: the Covenant of Works and the Covenant of Grace.

Protestant Reformed Orthodoxy now stands at the crossroads the plight of Westminster Seminary East and West is merely illustrative of the depth and the intensity of the contemporary theological dispute one impacting the future of Protestant evangelicalism as a whole The battle is between historic Reformed Protestantism and modern day revisionism of a radical sort The rapid rise of postmodernism or nonfoundationalism is indicative of the rapidly changing mood and posture in evangelical biblical scholarship at the opening of this third millennium of Christian interpretation Without question the modern church continues to loose her biblical moorings Forsaking the basic theological convictions of the Protestant Reformation it has attempted to subject the Word of God to vigorous academic i e scientific investigation the return of rationalism In doing so it has abandoned the Scripture principle which recognizes the uniquely authoritative and inerrant character of the Word of God Lost in the shuffle is the uncompromising proclamation of the one true Gospel the Gospel of justification by grace through faith alone Lost also is the doctrine of the perspicuity of Scripture Nothing less than a new Reformation in our day will halt travel down the road leading to destruction

From the Preface Key Theological Thinkers
Svein Rise, 2016-04-22 The 20th and 21st Centuries have been characterized by theologians and philosophers rethinking theology and revitalizing the tradition This unique anthology presents contributions from leading contemporary theologians including Rowan Williams Fergus Kerr Aidan Nichols G R Evans and Tracey Rowland who offer portraits of over fifty key theological thinkers in the modern and postmodern era Distinguished by its broad ecumenical perspective this anthology spans arguably one of the most creative periods in the history of Christian theology and includes thinkers from all three Christian traditions Protestant Catholic and Orthodox Each individual portrait in this anthology includes a biographical introduction an overview of theological or philosophical writing presentation of key thoughts and contextual placing of the thinker within 20th Century religious discourse Overview articles explore postmodern theology radical orthodoxy ecumenical theology feminist theology and liberation theology A final section includes portraits of important thinkers who have influenced Christian thought from other fields not least from Continental philosophy and literature The Order of Things Alister E. McGrath, 2008-04-15 Provocative and immensely well informed The Order of Things represents a substantial and original contribution to the fields of systematic theology historical theology and the science and religion dialogue Leading theologian Alister E McGrath explores how the working methods and assumptions of the natural sciences can be used to inform and stimulate systematic theology Written by one of today s best known Christian writers Explores how the working methods and assumptions of the natural sciences can be used to inform and stimulate systematic theology Continues McGrath s acclaimed exploration of scientific theology begun with his groundbreaking three volume work A Scientific Theology Includes a landmark extended analysis of whether doctrinal development can be explained using Darwinian evolutionary models and exploration of how the transition from a scientific theology to a future scientific dogmatics might be made Supported by a published review of McGrath s scientific theology project which is currently the best brief introduction to his thought Constructing a Mediating Theology J. D. Kim, 2022-11-16 How does an almighty and all loving God respond to his beloved human creatures who are made in his image and yet implicated in sin and suffering What is the origin of human suffering Is it sin or the limitations of human beings Is God moved by our suffering If he sympathizes and co suffers with us can he deliver us out of our miseries Thousands and perhaps millions of people have asked these questions and are searching desperately for their answers Two major views have been advanced in the history of Christian theology to describe God s response to the suffering of the world divine impassibility and divine passibility More recently a third mediating position between impassibilism and passibilism has arisen which affirms both the impassibility and the passibility of God This position can be identified as modified classical theism an approach that grasps the perfect and relational nature of God Following this mediating position this book sets out its own constructive understanding of a mediating position with the help of a new way of understanding the way in which the eternal actions and corresponding passions of the divine persons condition one another the dynamic reciprocity model
