All American 45 American Men On Being Muslim I Speak For Myself:

All-American Wajahat Ali, Zahra T. Suratwala, 2012 Collects essays by American Muslim men examining their lives and how their beliefs impact others inside and outside of the Muslim community Young Muslim America Muna Ali, 2018 Introduction Divergent origins and converging histories The identity crisis of younger Muslims Pure true Islam vs cultural Islam The Islamization of America Crafting an American Muslim community Creating an American Muslim culture Closing thoughts Growing Up Muslim Andrew Garrod, Robert Kilkenney, 2014-04-11 While 9 11 and its aftermath created a traumatic turning point for most of the writers in this book it is telling that none of their essays begin with that moment These young people were living probing and shifting their Muslim identities long before 9 11 I've heard it said that the second generation never asks the first about its story but nearly all the essays in this book include long intimate portrayals of Muslim family life often going back generations These young Muslims are constantly negotiating the differences between families for whom faith and culture were matters of honor and North America's youth culture with its emphasis on questioning exploring and inventing one's own destiny from the Introduction by Eboo Patel In Growing Up Muslim Andrew Garrod and Robert Kilkenney present fourteen personal essays by college students of the Muslim faith who are themselves immigrants or are the children of immigrants to the United States In their essays the students grapple with matters of ethnicity religious prejudice and misunderstanding and what is termed Islamophobia The fact of 9 11 and subsequent surveillance and suspicion of Islamic Americans particularly those hailing from the Middle East and the Asian Subcontinent have had a profound effect on these students their families and their communities of origin The Oxford Handbook of American Islam Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, Jane I. Smith, 2014 In this volume 30 of the field's top scholars examine historical and contemporary aspects of American Islam and explore the meaning of religious identity in the context of race ethnicity gender and politics South Asian American Stories of Self Tasneem Mandviwala, 2022-10-04 This book acknowledges and discusses the now politically infamous aspects of an American Muslim woman's life such as Islamophobia and hijab but it more importantly examines how women actually deal with these obstacles intentionally shifting the lens to capture a more holistic nuanced understanding of their human experiences This text is based on a three year long qualitative interdisciplinary cultural and developmental psychology and gender systems study It uniquely organizes risks protective factors and coping mechanisms according to developmental life stages from teenage to adulthood Results show how second generation Muslim American women's identities develop during adolescence 11 18 emerging adulthood 19 29 and adulthood 30 39 within multiple socio cultural contexts Discussions regarding Muslim Americans often erroneously equate Muslim with Arab or Middle Eastern By focusing on South Asian Muslim Americans this work bluntly discusses the overlaps of South Asian culture with Islam an important contribution to the field since the majority of immigrant Muslims in America are of South Asian descent This study adds nuance and detail to American Muslim girls and women's experiences while fighting misinformation and stereotypes It is a significant contribution to anthropological developmental psychology and cultural psychology The focus on a historically academically marginalized population is beneficial to students researchers and professionals in the field The Great American Mosaic Gary Y. Okihiro, Lionel C. Bascom, James E. Seelye Jr., Emily Moberg Robinson, Guadalupe Compeán, 2014-09-30 Firsthand sources are brought together to illuminate the diversity of American history in a unique way by sharing the perspectives of people of color who participated in landmark events This invaluable four volume compilation is a comprehensive source of documents that give voice to those who comprise the American mosaic illustrating the experiences of racial and ethnic minorities in the United States Each volume focuses on a major racial ethnic group African Americans American Indians Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders and Latinos Documents chosen by the editors for their utility and relevance to popular areas of study are organized into chronological periods from historical to contemporary The collection includes eyewitness accounts legislation speeches and interviews Together they tell the story of America's diverse population and enable readers to explore historical concepts and contexts from multiple viewpoints Introductions for each volume and primary document provide background and history that help students understand and critique the material The work also features a useful primary document guide bibliographies and indices to aid teachers librarians and students in class work and research Contemporary Arab-American Literature Carol

Fadda-Conrey, 2014-05-30 The last couple of decades have witnessed a flourishing of Arab American literature across multiple genres Yet increased interest in this literature is ironically paralleled by a prevalent bias against Arabs and Muslims that portrays their long presence in the US as a recent and unwelcome phenomenon Spanning the 1990s to the present Carol Fadda Conrey takes in the sweep of literary and cultural texts by Arab American writers in order to understand the ways in which their depictions of Arab homelands whether actual or imagined play a crucial role in shaping cultural articulations of US citizenship and belonging By asserting themselves within a US framework while maintaining connections to their homelands Arab Americans contest the blanket representations of themselves as dictated by the US nation state Deploying a multidisciplinary framework at the intersection of Middle Eastern studies US ethnic studies and diaspora studies Fadda Conrey argues for a transnational discourse that overturns the often rigid affiliations embedded in ethnic labels Tracing the shifts in transnational perspectives from the founders of Arab American literature like Gibran Kahlil Gibran and Ameen Rihani to modern writers such as Naomi Shihab Nye Joseph Geha Randa Jarrar and Suheir Hammad Fadda Conrey finds that contemporary Arab American writers depict strong yet complex attachments to the US landscape She explores how the idea of home is negotiated between immigrant parents and subsequent generations alongside analyses of texts that work toward fostering more nuanced understandings of Arab and Muslim identities in the wake of post 9 11 anti Arab sentiments

American Caliph Shahan Mufti, 2022-11-22 One of Publishers Weekly's Best Nonfiction Books of 2022 A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice The riveting true story of America's first homegrown Muslim terror attack the 1977 Hanafi siege of Washington DC On March 9 1977 Washington DC came under attack Seven men stormed the headquarters of B'nai B'rith International quickly taking control of the venerable Jewish organization's building and holding more than a hundred employees hostage inside A little over an hour later three more men entered the Islamic Center of Washington the country's biggest and most important mosque and took hostages there Two others subsequently penetrated the municipal government's District Building a few hundred yards from the White House When the gunmen there opened fire a reporter was killed and city councilor Marion Barry later to become the mayor of Washington DC was shot in the chest The deadly standoff brought downtown Washington to a standstill The attackers belonged to the Hanafi movement an African American Muslim group based in DC Their leader was a former jazz drummer named Hamaas Abdul Khaalis who had risen through the ranks of the Nation of Islam before feuding with the organization's mercurial chief Elijah Muhammad and becoming Kareem Abdul Jabbar's spiritual authority Like Malcolm X Khaalis paid a price for his apostasy in 1973 seven of his family members and followers were killed by Nation supporters in one of the District's most notorious murders As Khaalis and the hostage takers took control of their DC targets four years later they vowed to begin killing their hostages unless their demands were met the federal government must turn over the killers of Khaalis's family the boxer Muhammad Ali and Elijah's son Wallace so that they could face true justice They also demanded that the American premiere of Mohammad Messenger of God a Hollywood epic about the life of the prophet Muhammad financed and supported by the Libyan leader Muammar Gaddafi be canceled and the film destroyed Shahan Mufti's American Caliph gives the first full account of the largest ever hostage taking on American soil and of the tormented man who masterminded it Informed by extensive archival research and hundreds of declassified FBI files American Caliph tracks the battle for control of American Islam the international politics of religion and oil and the hour to hour drama of a city facing a homegrown terror assault The result is a riveting true crime story that sheds new light on the disarray of the 1970s and its ongoing reverberations Globe, 1997 The Ground Has Shifted Walter Earl Fluker, 2018-10-02 Honorable Mention Theology and Religious Studies PROSE Award A powerful insight into the historical and cultural roles of the Black church If we are in a post racial era then what is the future of the Black Church If the US will at some time in the future be free from discrimination and prejudices that are based on race how will that affect the church's very identity In The Ground Has Shifted Walter Earl Fluker passionately and thoroughly discusses the historical and current role of the Black church and argues that the older race based language and metaphors of religious discourse have outlived their utility He offers instead a larger global vision for the Black church that focuses on young Black men and other disenfranchised groups who have been left behind in a world of globalized capital Lyrically written with an emphasis on the dynamic and fluid movement of life itself Fluker argues that the church must find new ways to use race as an emancipatory instrument if it is to remain central in Black life and he points the way for a new generation of church leaders scholars and activists to reclaim the Black church's historical identity and to turn to the task of infusing character civility and a sense of community among its congregants
