All Elevations Unknown Sam Lightner Jr.,2001-09-18 In 1999 when mankind had successfully mapped the surface of the Moon Venus and Mars there were still sections of Borneo that man had nothing to say about other than all elevations unknown In the spring of 1999 armed with little more than a description from a book and a map labeled all elevations unknown Sam Lightner and his German rock climbing buddy Volker found themselves deep in the jungles of Borneo on a mission to climb a mountain that was only rumored to exist They had only their climbing expertise to rely on and a copy of a little known book titled World Within written by Major Tom Harrison a British World War II soldier who had been one of the first white men ever to explore the interior jungles of the island and interact with its native peoples He had also conducted one of the most daring and unusual campaigns in military history In 1945 he had been assigned the near impossible mission of parachuting blindly into the thick Borneo rain forests to unite the feuding native tribes who then had a grisly habit of cutting off heads against the Japanese in order to reclaim the island for the Allies A captivating utterly original combination of travel adventure memoir and historical re creation All Elevations Unknown charts Lightner s exhilarating often harrowing quest to ascend the mountain Batu Lawi in the face of leeches vipers and sweat bees and to keep his team together in one of the earth s most treacherous uncharted pockets Along the way Lightner reconstructs a fascinating historical narrative that chronicles Tom Harrison s adventures on Borneo during the war and illuminates an astonishing piece of forgotten World War II history Rife with suspense and vivid detail the two intertwining tales open up the island of Borneo its people and its history in a powerful unforgettable way and take adventure writing to new heights A daring twist on the travel adventure genre that places the talented Lightner in the ranks of authors such as Jon Krakauer Sebastian Junger and Redmond O Hanlon All Elevations Unknown is ultimately the remarkable story of two adventurers separated by fifty years and united by one mountain

All Elevations Unknown Sam Lightner Jr.,2002-07-09 Sam Lightner Jr combines two tales of adventure one historic and the other modern day in his page turner With its rich sense of place and history All Elevations Unknown offers a surprisingly fresh twist to an adventure climbing tale Climbing Magazine In the spring of 1999 armed with little more than a description from a book and a map labeled all elevations unknown Sam Lightner and his German rock climbing buddy Volker found themselves deep in the jungles of Borneo on a mission to climb a mountain that was only rumored to exist What little they knew about the mountain they had learned from the memoirs of Major Tom Harrisson a British World War II soldier who in 1945 had been assigned the near impossible mission of parachuting blindly into the thick Borneo rainforest where the natives had a grisly habit of cutting off heads to try to reclaim the island for the Allies A captivating utterly original combination of travel adventure memoir and historical re creation All Elevations Unknown charts Lightner s exhilarating and at times harrowing quest to ascend the mountain Batu Lawi in the face of leeches vipers and sweat bees and to keep his team together in one of the earth s most treacherous uncharted pockets Along the way he reconstructs a fascinating historical narrative that chronicles Tom Harrison's adventures there during the war and illuminates an astonishing piece of forgotten World War II history. Rife with suspense and vivid detail, the two intertwining tales open up the island of Borneo, its people, and its history in a powerful unforgettable way, taking adventure writing to new heights.

All Elevations Unknown Sam Lightner, 2001

In 1999, when mankind had successfully mapped the surface of the Moon, Venus, and Mars, there were still sections of Borneo that man had nothing to say about other than all elevations unknown. In the spring of 1999, armed with little more than a description from a book and a map labeled all elevations unknown, Sam Lightner and his German rock-climbing buddy Volker found themselves deep in the jungles of Borneo on a mission to climb a mountain that was only rumored to exist. They had only their climbing expertise to rely on and a copy of a little-known book titled World Within, written by Major Tom Harrison, a British World War II soldier who had been one of the first white men ever to explore the interior jungles of the island and interact with its native peoples. He had also conducted one of the most daring and unusual campaigns in military history. In 1945, he had been assigned the near-impossible mission of parachuting blindly into the thick Borneo rain forests to unite the feuding native tribes, who then had a grisly habit of cutting off heads against the Japanese in order to reclaim the island for the Allies.
