Bipolar in Order Tom Wootton, 2009 By examining all states of depression mixed states and mania unflinchingly and deeply Wootton arrives at conclusions that challenge the current paradigm His treatment solution is to confront these conditions head on identify one s strengths and learn self mastery U.S. Army War College Guide to National Security Issues: National security policy and strategy J. Boone Bartholomees, Army War College (U.S.). Strategic Studies Institute, 2012 Volume II continues the analyses and discussion of national security policy and strategy The U.S Rebalance and the Asia-Pacific Region Centre for Public Policy Research, Centre for Strategic Studies, Given the strategic emergence of the Asia Pacific region there has been a significant rethinking on the need to develop and strengthen relationships within the region and also with the United States Therefore its becomes important to analyze how the regional powers will position themselves vis a vis the United States and how they would respond to the rebalancing initiative CPPR Centre for Strategic Studies provided a platform for prominent strategists think tank analysts leading experts and academicians to discuss debate and map the future US role in the Asia Pacific in its 2 day international conference on U S Rebalance and the Asia Pacific region Korean Unification and the Positions and Roles of the Four Neighboring Powers Bae, Jung-Ho, Korea Institute for National Unification (South Korea), 2013-01-30 As the debate about unification has recently been enlivened in Korean society the flame of hope for unification is being re kindled However there are still many who focus solely on the enormous costs involved while others remain passive toward the unification issue Particularly members of the younger generation feel satisfied with co existence under an unstable peace as a divided peninsula However as indicated in a special report by the Russian Institute of World Economy and International Relations IMEMO which assessed that North Korea is already in the process of collapse the unification issue is no longer something we can avoid Therefore armed with this consciousness of the problems of our era this project assesses the significance of the recent rekindling of interest in unification and considers a new vision of unification and its potential value dealing intensively with the positions and roles of the four neighboring powers regarding unification as well as ideas for strategic cooperation among South Korea and its powerful neighbors The publication of this project owes much to the diligent efforts of KINU research associates such as Hyo Min Lee Uichan Ko and Jisuk Park who reviewed and edited the various papers Also the English version of this publication benefited greatly from the accurate translations done by research associates Meredith Rose Shaw and Hyo Min Lee It is the editor s hope that this research project can help both Korean and foreign experts academics and readers to better understand the value of Korean unification and the various positions and roles that can be played by the US Japan China and Russia Chapter 1 A Vision of Korean Unification and Its Value Building Great Power Korea Jung Ho Bae Director Center for International Relations Studies KINU Chapter 2 German Reunification and the European Union Don Jay Yeom Dean Graduate School of Strategic Studies Sungkyunkwan University Chapter 3 The United States and Korean Unification Ralph Hassig and

The Making of the Global Nuclear Order in the 1970s David Holloway, Leopoldo Nuti, 2020-12-17 This collection of essays offers a fresh look at the 1970s the crucial decade when the nuclear non proliferation regime took shape Exploring a broad array of newly declassified archival sources from different countries across the globe and moving freely across methodological and national barriers historians from Europe North and South America Asia and Africa discuss the making of the global nuclear order from truly international and transnational perspectives The result is a fascinating and innovative volume which will remain an essential reference for historians of the nuclear age of the cold war and more generally of the evolution of the international system in the second half of the twentieth century The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The International History Review

After the Cold War Alpo M. Rusi, 1991-05-31 This book provides new and exceptional interpretations in regard to the post World War 2 history of the East West conflict and calls for interdisciplinary approaches in analyzing international relations The systematic and political processes are undoing the division of Europe and restoring an organically interdependent continent The events of 1989 in Eastern Europe are but a harbinger of a new security order in Europe and for the first time since the Treaty of Westphalia of 1648 Europe tries to look beyond state centered concepts of security

Understanding and Explaining the Iranian Nuclear 'Crisis' Halit M. E. Tagma, Paul E. Lenze, Jr., 2020-10-14 In Understanding and Explaining the Iranian Nuclear Crisis Theoretical Approaches Halit M E Tagma and Paul E Lenze Jr analyze the crisis surrounding Iran's nuclear program through a variety of theoretical approaches including realism world systems theory liberal institutionalism domestic politics and multi level games Through these theories Tagma and Lenze use established academic perspectives to create a more objective understanding and explanation of the debates and issues Introducing the concept of eclectic pluralism to the study of international relations Understanding and Explaining the Iranian Nuclear Crisis presents theoretical approaches side by side to explore a complex and evolving international dispute

Multiple Criteria Decision Making Günter Fandel, Tomas Gal, 2012-12-06 The organizers of the 12th International Conference on Multiple Criteria Decision Making MCDM held June 19-23 1995 in Hagen received the second time the opportunity to prepare an international conference on MCDM in Germany the first opportunity has been the 3rd International Conference on MCDM in Königswinter 1979 Quite a time elapsed since then and therefore it might be interesting to compare some indicators of the development of the International Society on MCDM which has been founded in Königswinter Stanley Zionts has been elected first president and all 44 participants of that Conference became founding members Today our Society has over 1200 members and its own Journal MCDM World Scan In Hagen 1996 we had 152 participants from 34 countries It is interesting to mention that also other Groups established their organization like the European Working Group on Multiple Criteria Decision Aid the German Working Group on Decision Theory and Applications the Multi Objective Programming and Goal Programming Group ESIGMA and some others It is also interesting to note that the intersection of members of all these Groups and Societies is not empty and there is quite a cooperation among them

International Relations Theory of War Ofer Israeli, 2019-04-10 Covering 1816-2016 this book deals extensively with the international system as well as the territorial outcomes of several key wars that were waged during that time period providing an instructive lesson in diplomatic history and international relations among global powers Based on an in depth review of the leading theories in the field of international relations International Relations Theory of War explains an innovative theory on the international system developed by the author that he applies comprehensively to a large number of case studies The book argues that there is a unipolar system that represents a kind of innovation relative to other systemic theories It further posits that unipolar systems will be less stable than bipolar systems and more stable than multipolar systems providing new insights relative to other theories that argue that unipolar systems are the most stable ones The first chapter is devoted to explaining the manner of action of the two dependent variables systemic international outcome and intra systemic international outcome The second chapter presents the international relations theory of war and its key assumptions The third chapter precisely defines the distribution of power in the system The fourth chapter examines the theory's two key phenomena The fifth and last chapter presents the book's conclusions by examining the theoretical assumptions of the international relations theory of war
