Adolfo Ovies, 2021-06-11 First in a trilogy a study of the strategy tactics and rivalry between two leaders of the Army of the Potomac's cavalry during the American Civil War George Armstrong Custer's career has attracted its fair share of coverage but most Custer related studies focus on his decision making and actions to the exclusion of other important factors including his relationships with his fellow officers Custer developed his tactical philosophy within the politically ridden atmosphere of the Army of the Potomac's Cavalry Corps His relationship with his immediate superior Wesley Merritt was so acrimonious that even Custer's wife Libbie described him as her husband's enemy The Boy Generals examines in detail the steadily deteriorating relationship of two cavalymen with opposing tactical philosophies and how this relationship affected events in the field Custer was a hussar a firm believer in the shock power of the mounted saber charge while Merritt was a dragoon his tactics rooted in the belief that the purpose of the horse was to transport the trooper to the battlefield where he could fight dismounted with his carbine With these diametrically opposed belief systems it was inevitable that these officers would clash What has often been described as a spirited rivalry was in fact something much darker an association that moved from initial distaste to acrimony and finally outright insubordination on Custer's part Author Adolfo Ovies mined deeply official reports regimental histories and contemporary newspaper accounts together with unpublished and little used primary sources of men who fought in their commands This rich and satisfying study exposes the depths of one of the most dysfunctional and influential relationships in the Army of the Potomac and how it affected cavalry operations in the Eastern Theater The Boy Generals will change the way Civil War readers think of the premier Union army's mounted arm as well as George Custer's legacy Praise for The Boy Generals A grand effort a Must Read It will be a standard bearer a marvelous book that should remain among the very best It will certainly grace my library Frederic C Wagner III author of The Strategy of Defeat at the Little Big Horn Well written thoroughly researched and entertaining This is one you cannot miss Eric J Wittenberg award winning author of The Devil's to Pay John Buford at Gettysburg A History and Walking Tour Herd Register American Guernsey Cattle Club, 1918 Directory - American Veterinary Medical Association American Veterinary Medical Association, 1966 1970 Census of Housing, 1971
