Weather: Spaces, Mobilities and Affects Kaya Barry, Maria Borovnik, Tim Edensor, 2020-12-17 This book delves into the everyday spaces diverse mobilities and affective potency of weather It presents cutting edge research into the multiplicity of weather phenomena and analyses the lived experiences of humans in conjunction with contemporary issues notably climate change The book considers how everyday experiences of weather in the mundane lives of people are linked to broader changes in weather patterns and climate change Heat dust ice snow precipitation sunlight clouds tides and fog are states of weather that impact on the ways in which humans become intertwined with landscapes Our experiences with weather are diverse and ever changing and engaging with weather entangles humans with mobilities materials and landscapes This book thus explores affective and sensory resonances drawing upon a variety of theoretical empirical and creative material to investigate how weather is perceived in different social and cultural contexts Key themes focus on the mobilities generated by weather the affective and sensual potency of weather and the diverse cultural forms and practices that exemplify how weather is historically geographically and artistically represented Offering a social and cultural understanding of weather events this book contributes to a growing literature on weather across various disciplines including human geography and cultural geography and will thus appeal to students and scholars of geography sociology humanities cultural studies and the arts Newsweek, 2002

Survival of a Perverse Nation Tamar R. Shirinian, 2024-10-11 In Survival of a Perverse Nation Tamar R. Shirinian traces two widespread rhetorics of perversion sexual and moral in postsocialist Armenia showing how they are tied to anxieties about the nation's survival In her fieldwork with Armenians Shirinian found that right wing nationalists focus on sexual perversion centers the figure of the homosexual while questions of moral perversion surround oligarchs and other members of the political economic elite While the homosexual is seen as non or improperly reproductive the oligarch's moral deviations from the caring and paternalistic expectations associated with national leadership also endanger Armenia's survival Shirinian shows how both figures threaten the nation's proper social reproduction a source of great anxiety for a nation whose primary point of identity is surviving genocide In the existential threat posed by these forms of perversion Shirinian finds paths where nonsurvival might mean the creation of futures that are queerer and more just Detailing how the language of perversion offers trenchant critiques of capitalism as a perversion of life Shirinian presents a new queer theory of political economy
