These range from the pressures of a global pandemic to the impacts of climate change democratic backsliding deteriorating public services and the realignments in the international political economy following the rise of China. In doing so it reflects on the political transformations global convergences and underlying regional as well as national trajectories that have taken place recently focusing on among others Democratic governance and institutional trust Public service delivery motivation and governance outcomes Policy crises disaster management and climate change Policy successes and failures Policy innovations digitalisation and policy research in the Global South. Different authors bring together varied and specialised perspectives and experiences which are important for researchers practitioners and policymakers wishing to understand emerging governance models innovations and challenges within the Global South.

Routledge Handbook of Public Policy in Africa Gedion Onyango, 2021-12-30. This Handbook provides an authoritative and foundational disciplinary overview of African Public Policy and a comprehensive examination of the practicalities of policy analysis policymaking processes implementation and administration in Africa today. The book assembles a multidisciplinary team of distinguished and upcoming Africanist scholars practitioners researchers and policy experts working inside and outside Africa to analyse the historical and emerging policy issues in 21st century Africa. While mostly attentive to comparative public policy in Africa this book attempts to address some of the following pertinent questions: How can public policy be understood and taught in Africa? How does policymaking occur in unstable political contexts or in states under pressure? Has the democratisation of governing systems improved policy processes in Africa? How have recent transformations such as technological proliferation in Africa impacted public policy processes? What are the underlying challenges and potential policy paths for Africa going forward? The contributions examine an interplay of prevailing institutional political structural challenges and opportunities for policy effectiveness to discern striking commonalities and trajectories across different African states. This is a valuable resource for practitioners politicians researchers university students and academics interested in studying and understanding how African countries are governed State Politics and Public Policy in Eastern Africa Gedion Onyango, 2023-03-22 This book analyses major themes in twenty first century east African politics Predominantly authored by researchers and academics from the region it examines recent political developments public policy and governance across east and southern African countries The book advocates for a regionally focused comparative approach across Africa arguing that it provides a greater level of analysis than a complete continental study Adopting a multidisciplinary approach it covers numerous topics relating to politics public policy state and nation building in Africa Filling an important void in current literature the book will appeal to academics practitioners politicians and students of politics public policy and governance Chapter 16 and 20 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link springer.com Public

Administration Training in Africa Peter Fuseini Haruna, Shikha Vyas-Doorgapersad, 2014-12-19 There is a growing global interest in Africa and how to improve the quality of life of its people and for good reason The world can no longer afford to ignore the democratic changes that have occurred across the continent over the past two decades changes with tremendous implications for professional education and training for the tasks of nation building Public Administration Training in Africa Competencies in Development Management presents research findings related to talent and competency development within the framework of public service institutional capacity building The book focuses on public administration questions as they relate to training development and competency building that will strengthen public managers capacity to implement governance policies and work toward improving development management It draws on unique national experiences to provide research and scholarship that advance the dialogue on training and development relevant to African culture and history while at the same time contributing to enhance the field of practice In addition to offering detailed descriptions and analyses of unique national experiences the book also integrates transnational issues of training and development and ties the discussions back to the body of knowledge and scholarship defining the field and discipline of public administration As scholars and experts in their own right the authors make a reasoned case for rethinking and re examining training and development in Africa in light of the emerging governance approach to public administration The comprehensive empirical descriptions and analyses of education and training contexts and cultures written by some of the best minds in the subfield give you the latest research findings and distill relevant experiential and theoretical knowledge tools and skills based on case analyses including carrying out development activity in different cross cultural contexts Democratic Evaluation and Democracy Donna Podems, 2017-02-01 Democratic evaluation brings a way of thinking about evaluation s role in society and in particular its role in strengthening social justice Yet the reality of applying it and what happens when it is applied particularly outside the West is unclear Set in South Africa a newly formed democracy in Southern Africa the book affords an in depth journey that immerses a reader into the realities of evaluation and its relation to democracy The book starts with the broader introductory chapters that set the scene for more detailed ones which bring thorough insights into national government local government and civil societies experience of evaluation democratic evaluation and their understanding of how it contributes to strengthening democracy or not A teaching case the book concludes by providing guiding questions that encourage reflection discussion and learning that ultimately aims to inform practice and theory Public Administration in Africa Shikha Vyas-Doorgapersad,Lukamba-Muhiya. Tshombe,Ernest Peprah Ababio,2016-04-19 With contributions from leading regional scholars Public Administration in Africa Performance and Challenges examines the complexities of the art of governance from the unique African perspective The editors bring together a cohesive study of the major issues and regions by taking an analytic approach with the strong problem solution application Regions addressed range from South Africa Congo Uganda Nigeria Ghana Mauritius and Botswana Themes include colonialism reform poverty economy decentralization financing media political structures and more Beginning with an analysis of the relationship of policy design and its destination service delivery the book discusses the historical development of a state that has gone through upheavals in government and explores a decayed political economy that ultimately results in a need for sweeping measures The text examines the issues emerging policy makers in Africa must tackle namely poverty and the denial or lack of resources to keep a dignified human life It highlights how the media can be a catalyst for good governance and provides analytical aspects of implementing good governance reforms The book concludes with an examination of the concepts of decentralization and devolution in measuring service delivery performance and an exploration of Africa s economic success story It also details the African Peer Review Mechanisms in selected African countries and provides a holistic analysis of local government functioning in Africa These features and more make it an interdisciplinary reference for diverse social economic political and administrative issues
