Recordkeeping Caroline Brown, 2013-11-23 This groundbreaking text demystifies archival and recordkeeping theory and its role in modern day practice The book s great strength is in articulating some of the core principles and issues that shape the discipline and the impact and relevance they have for the 21st century professional Using an accessible approach it outlines and explores key literature and concepts and the role they can play in practice Leading international thinkers and practitioners from the archives and records management world Jeannette Bastian Alan Bell Anne Gilliland Rachel Hardiman Eric Ketelaar Jennifer Meehan and Caroline Williams consider the concepts and ideas behind the practicalities of archives and records management to draw out their importance and relevance Key topics covered include Concepts roles and definitions of records and archives Archival appraisal Arrangement and description Ethics for archivists and records managers Archives memories and identities The impact of philosophy on archives and records management Does technological change marginalize recordkeeping theory Readership This is essential reading for students and educators in archives and recordkeeping and invaluable as a guide for practitioners who want to better understand and inform their day to day work It is also a useful guide across related disciplines in the information sciences and humanities Encyclopedia of Archival Science Luciana Duranti,Patricia C. Franks,2015-06-17 Here is the first ever comprehensive guide to archival concepts principles and practices Encyclopedia of Archival Science features 154 entries which address every aspect of archival professional knowledge These entries range from traditional ideas like appraisal and provenance to today s challenges digitization and digital preservation They present the thoughts of leading luminaries like Ernst Posner Margaret Cross Norton and Philip Brooks as well as those of contemporary authors and rising scholars Historical and ethical components of practice are infused throughout the work Edited by Luciana Duranti from the University of British Columbia and Patricia C Franks from San Jos State University this landmark work was overseen by an editorial board comprised of leading archivists and archival educators from every continent Adrian Cunningham Queensland State Archives Australia Fiorella Foscarini University of Toronto and University of Amsterdam Pat Galloway University of Texas at Austin Shadrack Katuu International Atomic Energy Agency Giovanni Michetti University of Rome La Sapienza Ken Thibodeau National Archives and Records Administration US and Geoffrey Yeo University College London UK Developing and Maintaining Practical Archives Gregory S. Hunter,2020-04-14 Newly revised and updated to more thoroughly address our increasingly digital world including integration of digital records and audiovisual records into each chapter it remains the clearest and most comprehensive guide to the discipline Encyclopedia of Archival Writers, 1515 - 2015 Luciana Duranti,Patricia C. Franks,2019-04-26 The Encyclopedia of Archival Writers 1515 2015 is a reference work that includes the profiles of authors of literature about records and archives in the Western world who have shaped the records and archives field over a span of 500 years The 144 archival writers from 13 countries who are included in this volume were selected by an international advisory board on the basis of their impact on the records and archives profession and discipline the presence of their publications in educational programs reading lists and the frequency of reference to their work Among the writers included in this volume are Albertino Barisone of Padua 1587 1667 Sir Hilary Jenkinson of England 1882 1961 Adolf Brenneke of Germany 1875 1946 Theodore R Schellenberg of the United States 1903 1970 Robert Henri Bautier of France 1922 2010 Terry Cook of Canada 1947 2014 Vicenta Cort s Alonso of Spain 1925 Eric Ketelaar of the Netherlands 1944 Aurelio Tanodi of Argentina 1914 2011 Ian Maclean of Australia 1919 2003 and Verne Harris of South Africa 1958 Arranged in alphabetical order each entry includes a biography intellectual contributions and a brief essential bibliography A total of 113 educators professionals and students in the records and archives field 55 of whom are also profiled in this Encyclopedia contributed to this volume There is no other book in any language that focuses on the life and work of authors of records and archives literature In fact there is not easily available information on such writers Thus most entries involved quite a bit of research on dead writers and interviews with the living ones Several living writers supported this work by accepting to author their own entry Archives and Emotions Ilaria Scaglia,Valeria Vanesio,2024-11-14 Archives and Emotions argues at its most fundamental level that emotions matter and have always mattered to both the people whose histories are documented by archives and to those working with the documents these contain This is the first study to put archivists and historians scholars and practitioners from different settings geographical provenance and stages of career in conversation with one another to examine the interplay of a broad range of emotions and archives traditional and digital from the eighteenth to the twenty first centuries across national and disciplinary borders Drawing on methodologies from the history of emotions and critical archival studies this book provides an original analysis of two interconnected themes through a selected number of case studies the emotional dynamics affecting the construction and management of archives and the emotions and their effects on the people engaging with them such as archivists researchers and a broad range of communities Its main message is that critically investigating the history and mechanics of emotions including their suppression and exclusion also being conscious of their effects on people and societies is essential to understanding how archives came to hold deep civic and ethical implications for both present and future This study thus establishes a solid base for future scholarship and interdisciplinary collaborations and challenges academic and non academic readers to think work and train new generations differently fully aware that past and present choices have and might again hurt inspire empower or silence

Interdisciplinary Approaches to the Future of Africa and Policy Development Tshabangu, Icarbord,2022-03-11 Despite several idealistic efforts towards a united Africa the term remains a hypothetical concept symbolizing a desired federal state on the continent While globalization and interconnectedness have brought prosperity in some parts of the world Africa has not generally benefited from global decisions These decisions policies and practices have tended to be wholly influenced by the rich and powerful countries and their transnational agencies and corporations in pursuit of their national interests Faced with such enormous external economic and political forces the divided and powerless African states have been unable to bargain for lucrative economic deals or pursue national interests for the benefit of their people hence the need to examine what exists in varied fields and the emerging trends for the future Interdisciplinary Approaches to the Future of Africa and Policy Development addresses critical issues and challenges in Africa and seeks to examine and understand the future trends in Africa through a deconstructive interrogation of present trends Covering a wide range of topics such as sustainability equality and democracy it is ideal for researchers academicians students economists policymakers political parties trade unions and NGOs

The Nordic Model of Digital Archiving Greg Bak,Marianne Rostgaard,2023-11-23 The Nordic Model of Digital Archiving explores the roots and strengths of Nordic digital archiving and proposes new directions to guide digital archivists in addressing the challenges posed by ever changing digital technologies and the datafication of information and records Digitization and born digital records promise efficient and cost effective solutions to everything from preservation of data to easy user access However digitization also poses challenges for archival practitioners worldwide Bringing together contributions from practitioners and academics to offer a range of international case studies this book offers practical solutions for archivists in terms of governance technologies and processes It highlights and analyses the cornerstones of the Nordic model of archiving reliance on standards powerful regulatory instruments especially in public sector archiving including legislation and collaboration between archivists and government agencies and among different tiers of central and local government While showcasing work in the Nordic region for the benefit of archivists and record keepers globally this volume also challenges the limits of the Nordic model with insights drawn from international archival theory The Nordic Model of Digital Archiving offers a new perspective on archiving that will be of interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students of archiving digital archives and records management

Archives, Recordkeeping and Social Justice David A. Wallace, Wendy M. Duff, Renée Saucier, Andrew Flinn, 2020-05-10
Archives Recordkeeping and Social Justice expands the burgeoning literature on archival social justice and impact Illuminating how diverse factors shape the relationship between archives recordkeeping systems and recordkeepers this book depicts struggles for different social justice objectives Discussions and debates about social justice are playing out across many disciplines fields of practice societal sectors and governments and yet one dimension cross cutting these actors and engagement spaces has remained unexplored the role of recordkeeping and archiving To clarify and elaborate this connection this volume provides a rigorous account of the engagement of archives and records and their keepers in struggles for social justice Drawing upon multidisciplinary praxis and scholarship contributors to the volume examine social justice from historical and contemporary perspectives and promote impact methodologies that align with culturally responsive democratic Indigenous and transformative assessment Underscoring the multiplicity of transformative social justice impacts influenced by recordmaking recordkeeping and archiving the book presents nine case studies from around the world that link the past to the present and offer pathways towards a more just future Archives Recordkeeping and Social Justice will be an essential reading for researchers and students engaged in the study of archives truth and reconciliation processes social justice and human rights It should also be of great interest to archivists records managers and information professionals
