Better Than Before A Day By Day Journal:

Better Than Before Gretchen Rubin, 2015 Rubber Journal, 1924 The Definitive Journals of Lewis and Clark John Ordway, 2003-01-01 The dependable and matter of fact John Ordway was one of the mainstays of the Corps of Discovery promoted early on to sergeant and serving as an able leader during the captain's absence Fascinated by the peoples and places he encountered Ordway became the most faithful journalist on the expedition recording information not found elsewhere and making an entry for every day during the expedition Ordway later married and became a prosperous owner of two plantations in Missouri His honest and informative account which remained undiscovered for a century offers an unforgettable glimpse of an enlisted man's experiences and observations as he and the Corps of Discovery embarked on the journey of a lifetime In contrast to Ordway's extensive chronicle stands the far too brief but intriguingly detailed eyewitness account of Sergeant Charles Floyd the only member to die on the expedition The journals of John Ordway and Charles Floyd are part of the celebrated Nebraska edition of the complete journals of the Lewis and Clark expedition which feature a wide range of new scholarship on all aspects of the expedition from geography to Indian cultures and languages to plants and animals
