Literature Bridget Carrington, 2014-07-03 In November 2013 the joint annual conference of the British branch of the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY UK and the MA course at the National Centre for Research in Children's Literature NCRCL at Roehampton University took as its focus Feast or Famine Food in Children's Literature Food is central to both children's lives and their literature The mouth watering menu of talks given to the conference delegates is richly reflected in this book Speakers examined the uses of food in children's books from the nineteenth century to the present day and in a wide variety of genres from ancient fable to twenty first century fantasy From the contributions to this collection it is shown that food within literature not only reflects the society culture and time in which it is prepared but also is widely used by authors as a means to instruct their juvenile readers and to deliver moral messages

War and Childhood in the Era of the Two World Wars Mischa Honeck, James Marten, 2019-02-21 The histories of modern war and childhood were the result of competing urgencies According to ideals of childhood widely accepted throughout the world by 1900 children should have been protected even hidden from conflict and danger Yet at a time when modern ways of childhood became increasingly possible for economic social and political reasons it became less possible to fully protect them in the face of massive industrialized warfare driven by geopolitical rivalries and expansionist policies Taking a global perspective the chapters in this book examine a wide range of experiences and places In addition to showing how the engagement of children and youth with war differed according to geography technology class age race gender and the nature of the state they reveal how children acquired agency during the twentieth century s greatest conflicts The New Shape of Old Island Cultures Francis X. Hezel, 2001-05-01 The years since World War II have brought unprecedented social change to Micronesia Now drawing on more than four decades of experience living and working in the region Francis X Hezel assesses the most striking changes to have swept over the islands in the past fifty years His careful and comprehensive reading of Micronesian anthropology and history allows him to present insights into patterns of change touching the lives of not only Micronesians but people in other parts of the Pacific as well The broad range of topics covered include family structure land gender roles cultural treatment of life events birth marriage death sexuality political authority and demography and migration Hezel argues that the primary engine of social change in Micronesia has been the dramatic shift from subsistence fishing and gardening to salaried employment in a cash economy He makes the case that this fundamental change has fragmented the extended family changed the way land is viewed revolutionized gender roles and paved the way for an ethics of individualism
