Literature Erin Heather McGlothlin, 2006 This volume aims to expand the commonly used definition of second generation literature which refers to texts written from the perspective of the children of survivors to include texts written from the point of view of the children of Nazi perpetrators Abstraction and the Holocaust Mark Godfrey, 2007-01-01 Mark Godfrey looks closely at a series of American art and architectural projects that respond to the memory of the Holocaust He investigates how abstract artists and architects have negotiated Holocaust memory without representing the Holocaust figuratively or symbolically Holocaust Icons Oren Baruch Stier, 2015-11-01 The Holocaust has bequeathed to contemporary society a cultural lexicon of intensely powerful symbols a vocabulary of remembrance that we draw on to comprehend the otherwise incomprehensible horror of the Shoah Engagingly written and illustrated with more than forty black and white images Holocaust Icons probes the history and memory of four of these symbolic relics left in the Holocaust s wake Jewish studies scholar Oren Stier offers in this volume new insight into symbols and the symbol making process as he traces the lives and afterlives of certain remnants of the Holocaust and their ongoing impact Stier focuses in particular on four icons the railway cars that carried Jews to their deaths symbolizing the mechanics of murder the Arbeit Macht Frei work makes you free sign over the entrance to Auschwitz pointing to the insidious logic of the camp system the number six million that represents an approximation of the number of Jews killed as well as mass murder more generally and the persona of Anne Frank associated with victimization Stier shows how and why these icons an object a phrase a number and a person have come to stand in for the Holocaust where they came from and how they have been used and reproduced how they are presently at risk from a variety of threats such as commodification and what the future holds for the memory of the Shoah In illuminating these icons of the Holocaust Stier offers valuable new perspective on one of the defining events of the twentieth century He helps readers understand not only the Holocaust but also the profound nature of historical memory itself

Historical Dictionary of the Holocaust Jack R. Fischel, 2020-03-26 Beginning with the roots of anti-Semitism in early Christian Europe this book traces the evolution of the Jewish stereotype as the evil other which culminated in Adolf Hitler s war against the Jews wherein he sought to eliminate through mass murder every Jewish man woman and child It includes most recent scholarship on the Holocaust which reflects the recent rise of Neo Nazism anti-Semitism and xenophobia throughout the West including the United States This third edition of Historical Dictionary of the Holocaust contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities issues and events that led to the murder of six million Jews and millions of other groups by Nazi Germany This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Holocaust

After Auschwitz Northern Centre for Contemporary Art (Sunderland, Tyne and Wear, England), 1995 The senseless horror of the Holocaust continues to send shockwaves through history Few would question its profound influence on post war philosophy morality theological and political thinking Yet the impact of the Holocaust on the Fine Arts and in particular on contemporary art has still not received the attention it deserves This new publication accompanies a pioneering touring exhibition It comprises a series of illustrated essays by leading experts addressing the art produced by victims of the Holocaust during the Holocaust the influence of the Holocaust on artists who were not camp inmates working during the war and in the post war period Holocaust memorials and their significance and the work of a younger generation of artists many of them non Jews whose relationship to the Holocaust is more oblique Among the artists included are R B Kitaj Picasso Francis Bacon Magdalena Abakanowicz Christian Boltanski Melvin Charney Shimon Attie Zoran Music Susanna Pieratzki Mick Rooney and Nancy Spero The works selected have in common a determination not to rely on over used visual stereotypes nor to indulge in nostalgia morbidity or sentimentality Aesthetically compelling they force us to reassess a subject all too often dismissed as overworked and to reconsider the nature and potential of artistic activity after Auschwitz as the century nears its end
