Archaeology Coursebook An Introduction To Study Skills Topics And Methods:

The Archaeology Coursebook Jim Grant, Sam Gorin, Neil Fleming, 2005 Fully revised with new case studies 300 photographs and diagrams and new material on British pre history and the Roman empire this book provides students with the skills and technical concepts essential to the study of the archaeology Archaeological Fantasies Garrett G. Fagan, 2006 Including case studies this collection of engaging and stimulating essays written by a diverse group of scholars scientists and writers examines the phenomenon of pseudoarchaeology from a variety of perspectives The Archaeology of Mesopotamia Dr. Roger Matthews, 2003 This innovative volume evaluates the theories methods approaches and history of Mesopotamian archaeology from its origins in the 19th century up to the present day Local Responses to Colonization in the Iron Age Mediterranean Tamar Hodos, 2006-09-27 The first study to bring together such a breadth of data this book compares responses to colonization in the Iron Age Mediterranean From North Syria to Sicily and North Africa Tamar Hodos explores the responses to these colonies in areas where Greeks and Phoenicians were in competition with one another via the same local communities Highlighting the diversity of interest displayed by local populations in these foreign cultural offering Hodos charts their selective adaptation modification and reinterpretation of Greek and Phoenician goods and ideas as their own cultures evolve For students of archaeology and history this will provide an essential resource for their degree course studies Archaeology to Delight and Instruct Heather Burke, Claire E Smith, 2016-09-16 This book presents novel and interesting ways of teaching archaeological concepts and processes to college and university students Seeking alternatives to the formal lecture format the various contributions seek better ways of communicating the complexities of human behavior and of engaging students in active learning about the past This collection of imaginative exercises designed by 20 master instructors on three continents includes role playing games simulations activities and performance all designed to teach archaeological concepts in interesting and engaging ways Monumentality in Later Prehistory Harold Mytum, 2013-08-17 This volume provides the results of a 30 year excavation reconstruction and public interpretation campaign at the late prehistoric inland promontory settlement of Castell Henllys here focusing on the defensive sequence and the role of monumentality in later prehistory The site has international significance because of the extensive excavations of the Iron Age palisaded settlement and later earthen ramparts complex gateway and chevaux de frise of upright stones It is now widely recognised that the Iron Age consisted of many regional cultural traditions and the excavations at Castell Henllys provide a vital contrast to the well known large hillfort communities in other parts of England and Wales as well as across Europe As such it is a unique window into a widespread but largely ignored site category and form of social and economic organisation The publication will provide a case study for the construction and use of the earthworks of a major European late prehistoric settlement type the Iron Age hillfort the monumental construction is compared with other communal investments such as the Mississippian mounds It will also offer an innovative form of site reporting including alternative interpretations of the earthworks as either military defences or the community binding symbols Along with Excavation Experiment and Heritage Interpretation Castell Henllys Hillfort Then and Now these books will be required reading by those studying the late prehistoric archaeology of Britain and Europe at advanced undergraduate and postgraduate level and by those in North America studying complex societies monumentality and ways of writing archaeology
