Assessing the Long-Term Impact of Truth Commissions Anita Ferrara, 2014-09-19 In 1990 after the end of the Pinochet regime the newly elected democratic government of Chile established a Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC to investigate and report on some of the worst human rights violations committed under the seventeen year military dictatorship The Chilean TRC was one of the first truth commissions established in the world This book examines whether and how the work of the Chilean TRC contributed to the transition to democracy in Chile and to subsequent developments in accountability and transformation in that country The book takes a long term view on the Chilean TRC asking to what extent and how the truth commission contributed to the development of the transitional justice measures that ensued and how the relationship with those subsequent developments was established over time It argues that contrary to the views and expectations of those who considered that the Chilean TRC was of limited success that the Chilean TRC has in fact over the longer term played a key role as an enabler of justice and a means by which ethical and institutional transformation has occurred within Chile With the benefit of this historical perspective the book concludes that the impact of truth commissions in general needs to be carefully reviewed in light of the Chilean experience This book will be of great interest and use to students and scholars of conflict resolution criminal international law and comparative legal systems in Latin America

Transitional Justice Hakeem O. Yusuf, Hugo van der Merwe, 2021-09-06 Transitional justice is the way societies that have experienced civil conflict or authoritarian rule and widespread violations of human rights deal with the experience With its roots in law transitional justice as an area of study crosses various fields in the social sciences This book is written with this multi and inter disciplinary dynamic of the field in mind The book presents the broad scope of transitional justice studies through a focus on the theory mechanisms and debates in the area covering such topics as The origin context and development of transitional justice Victims victimology and transitional justice Prosecutions for abuses and gross violations of human rights Truth commissions Transitional justice and local justice Gender political economy and transitional justice Apology reconciliation and the politics of memory Offering a discussion of the impact and outcomes of transitional justice this approach provides valuable insight for those who seek both an introduction alongside relatively advanced engagement with the subject Transitional Justice Theories Mechanisms and Debates is an important text for postgraduate and advanced undergraduate students who take courses in transitional justice human rights and criminal law as well as a systematic reference text for researchers

Transitional Justice from State to Civil Society Sri Lestari Wahyuningroem, 2019-11-27 This book is the first to offer an in depth analysis of transitional justice as an unfinished agenda in Indonesia s democracy Examining the implementation of transitional justice measures in post authoritarian Indonesia this book analyses the factors within the democratic transition that either facilitated or hindered the adoption and implementation of transitional justice measures Furthermore it contributes key insights from an extensive examination of bottom up approaches to transitional justice in Indonesia through a range of case studies civil society led initiatives to truth seeking and local reconciliation efforts Based on extensive archival legal and media research as well as interviews with key actors in Indonesia s democracy and human rights institutions the book provides a significant contribution to current understandings of Indonesia s democracy Its analysis of the failure of state centred transitional justice measures and the role of civil society also makes an important addition to comparative transitional justice studies It will be of considerable interest to scholars and activists in the fields of Transitional Justice and Politics as well as in Asian Studies

Risk and Uncertainty

Olivier Urbain, 2017-07-05 Conflict transformation requires at minimum a capacity to listen and respond constructively to those who are being hurt intentionally or unintentionally by others This compendium attempts to understand the ways in which borders and boundaries are manifestations of less visible dynamics in individual or collective human consciousness Nur Yalman asks how certain theories such as the Huntington thesis become deadly in their consequences Omar Moufakkir and Ian Kelly analyze Dutch Moroccan relations Sverre Lodgaard outlines the interrelationship between geo politics emerging concepts of world order and nuclear weapon policies Anthony Marsella critically analyses the Fukushima nuclear disaster The lessons drawn in this volume underline the importance of communication honesty and a concerned government responsive to the needs of citizens in crisis Each of these contributions is grappling with different ways in which words theories ideologies and perspectives can hurt or heal divide or unite reconcile or destroy

Impact, Legitimacy, and Limitations of Truth Commissions

Angela D. Nichols, 2019-02-06 This book develops a theoretical understanding of how truth commissions achieve legitimacy and contribute to peace and stability Angela D Nichols argues that truth commissions are most likely to impact society when they possess certain institutional characteristics characteristics that send important political signals to the state and broader society alike If these signals suggest greater degrees of authority a break with the past and transparency in both its investigations and its findings the truth commission is more likely to impact society In particular Nichols examines whether or not states that adopt truth commissions with these characteristics are more likely to respect human rights and experience lower levels of violence She concludes with an analysis of Colombia s newly established Truth Coexistence and Non Recurrence Commission
