Pedagogic Practices, Student Engagement and Equity in Chinese as a Foreign Language Education Wen Xu, 2021-12-27 This book explores and analyses Chinese as a Foreign Language CFL pedagogic practices and learning experiences within a cohort of low socio economic status students within an Australian primary classroom It demonstrates that in spite of policy and educational discourses underpinning Asian literacies Chinese teaching and learning is a fragile undertaking in Australian schooling The politicisation of CFL education especially in the post COVID 19 era has exacerbated public stereotypes concerning racism and multiculturalism in Australia today Drawing upon Bernstein s theorisation and engagement framework Wen Xu sketches out CFL education as a democratic space where power and control relations can be deliberately operated to reinforce engaging learning experiences She suggests that pedagogic interventions in the name of social justice have the potential to make consequential differences in disadvantaged students life trajectories and CFL education can be envisioned as an avenue towards socioeconomic mobility instead of being criticised as a platform opposing to liberal ideas In turn she provides insights into teaching younger age CFL learners in the global context in terms of the structuring of pedagogy and curriculum Wen Xu s research will be of interest to students and scholars in sociology of education student engagement pedagogy and curriculum CFL education and languages education as well as pre service teachers and practitioners who teach Chinese as a Foreign Language
