Beyond Borders Challenging Boundaries Of Philosophy Faith Education:

Mending the World? Niclas Blader, Kristina Helgesson Kjellin, 2017-06-16 Religion has played a major role in history affecting the course of events and influencing individuals Today one frequently hears the expression the return of religion but opinions differ as to how this return is to be understood It is clear that modernity and postmodernity have not meant that religion is dead or relegated to society's backyards Religion is still of vital importance for many people It has to some extent changed shape but has not lost its legitimacy and attractiveness to broad groups Religion is public visible and has a sought for voice but it is also wrestling with extremism ignorance and preconceptions Just like ideologies religions are capable of activating diametrically opposite traits in humans It is this dual tension that is implicit in the question mark in this book's title Mending the World This book's aim is to help explore whether how and in what ways religion church and theology can contribute constructively to the future of a global society In thirty one chapters researchers from around the world address the relation between religion and society

Catholic Social Learning, Expanded Edition Roger Bergman, 2023-12-20 The award winning and widely read first edition of Catholic Social Learning Educating the Faith That Does Justice published in 2011 described the critical edge of the tradition of justice pedagogy in Catholic higher education at the end of the first decade of the twenty first century But living traditions change in response to new challenges and develop their own resources more fully The most obvious and compelling development in recent years has been the publication in 2015 of Pope Francis landmark encyclical Laudato Si On Care for Our Common Home the occasion for the new chapter length afterword to this expanded edition of Catholic Social Learning The urgent imperative to defend creation is a major but not the only reason for a new edition Two new chapters on the many forms of shame as a pedagogical issue and on the Book of Job and belief in a just world add spiritual and theological depth to the original assessment of more than a decade ago Those three additions comprise the totally new Part IV The Critical Edge of the Tradition A new preface sets the argument in the context of current controversies over the place of painful emotions in educational settings

Occupational Therapies without Borders - Volume 2 Frank Kronenberg, Nick Pollard, Dikaïos Sakellariou, 2011-10-24 The companion text to Occupational Therapy without Borders Volume 1 learning from the spirit of survivors In this landmark text writers from around the world discuss a plurality of occupation based approaches that explicitly acknowledge the full potential of the art and science of occupational therapy The profession is presented as a political possibilities based practice concerned with what matters most to people in real life contexts generating practice based evidence to complement evidence based practice As these writers demonstrate occupational therapies are far more than as some critical views have suggested a monoculture of practice rooted in Western modernity Nobel Peace Laureate Desmond Tutu captures the ethos of this book which essentially calls for engagements in the service of a purpose that is larger than the advancement of our profession's interests Your particular approach to advancing our wellbeing and health strikes me as both unique and easily taken for granted Whilst you value and work with medical understandings your main aim seems to go beyond these You seem to enable people to appreciate more consciously how what we do to and with ourselves and others on a daily basis impacts on our individual and collective wellbeing As occupational therapists you have a significant contribution to make allowing people from all walks of life to contribute meaningfully to the wellbeing of others Links philosophy with practical examples of engaging people in ordinary occupations of daily life as a means of enabling them to transform their own lives Includes contributions from worldwide leaders in occupational therapy research and practice Describes concrete initiatives in under served and neglected populations Looks at social and political mechanisms that influence people's access to useful and meaningful occupation Chapters increase diversity of contributions geographically culturally and politically Emphasis on practice education and research maintains academic credibility A glossary and practical examples in nearly every chapter make text more accessible to students

A Postfoundationalist Comparative Christology David Muthukumar Sivasubramanian, 2022-03-28 Interreligious relationships are often hindered by epistemic disparity caused by the nexus between religions and state powers To solve this problem David Muthukumar Sivasubramanian develops a postfoundationalist epistemological framework to affirm the epistemic parity and plurality of religions while upholding their particularity and universality Building on this postfoundationalist epistemology a comparative Christology paradigm that uses insights from the extant comparative theology method is reformulated with a Christological focus This model seeks to affirm the exclusive faith assertions of Christianity and the corresponding universal claims for Christ It also sustains the particular religious identity of a comparative theologian over against any compulsion to assume hybrid identity in the interreligious cross learning This comparative Christology framework is exhibited through cross learning with the Tamil Saiva Siddhanta tradition This method is shown to affirm not only the particularity and universality of Christianity but also of the Tamil Saiva

Siddhanta tradition by defining each religion's attempt at their revealed truth as a parallel quest for truth. Thus it facilitates dialogue across religions by securing one's self-identity and the other's alterity.

Identity and Internationalization in Catholic Universities Hans de Wit, Andrés Bernasconi, Visnja Car, Fiona Hunter, Michael James, Daniela Véliz, 2018-08-02

Identity and Internationalization in Catholic Universities explores the relationship between Catholic identity, mission, and internationalization in Catholic universities of different types and located in different contexts. Internationalization is a key concern for universities working to achieve their goals in different regions of the world but without neglecting their identity. There are many universities that consider themselves related to the Roman Catholic faith and many other universities with Christian affiliations. It is well known that Catholic universities have unique missions such as the formation of individuals inspired by a religious conviction to serve society and the church. That is why it is imperative to have empirical knowledge to help develop practical and effective policies on central themes such as internationalization, a fundamental part of many universities' developmental strategies while paying special attention to each university's specific context. This book includes sixteen case studies from Latin America, the United States, the Asia Pacific, and Europe and also includes chapters on regional perspectives on Catholic higher education as well as more specifically Jesuit higher education, the global network of La Salle universities, and internationalization in the United States, Latin America, the Asia Pacific region, and Europe.
