Aesthetics In A Multicultural Age:

Aesthetics in a Multicultural Age Emory Elliott, Louis Freitas Caton, Jeffrey Rhyne, 2002 Papers from conference titled Aesthetics and Difference held October 22-24 1998 by the Center for Ideas and Society at the University of California Riverside

Aesthetics in a Multicultural Age Emory Elliott, Lou Freitas Caton, Jeffrey Rhyne, 2002-01-10 Aesthetics in a Multicultural Age examines a variety of significant multidisciplinary and multicultural topics within the subject of aesthetics. Addressing the vexed relation of the arts and criticism to current political and cultural concerns, the contributors to this volume attempt to bridge the two decades old gap between scholars and critics who hold conflicting views of the purposes of art and criticism. By exploring some of the ways in which global migration and expanding ethnic diversity are affecting cultural productions and prompting reassessment of the nature and role of aesthetic discourse, this volume provides a new evaluation of aesthetic ideas and practices within contemporary arts and letters.

The Aesthetics of Uncertainty Janet Wolff, 2008 Abstract

Reading American Novels and Multicultural Aesthetics L. Caton, 2007-12-25 Using romantic theories, Caton analyzes America's contemporary novel. Organized through the two sections of Theory and Practice, Reading American Novels and Multicultural Aesthetics begins with a study of aesthetic form only to have it reveal the content of politics and history. This presentation immediately offers a unified platform for an interchange between multiple cultural and aesthetic positions. Romantic theory provides for an integrated examination of diversity, one that metaphorically fosters a solid inclusive and democratic legitimacy for intercultural communication. This politically astute cosmopolitan appreciation will generate an intriguing cross-over audience from ethnic studies to American studies and from literary studies to romantic studies; this book will interest a range of readers.

American Literature's Aesthetic Dimensions Cindy Weinstein, Christopher Looby, 2012 These diverse essays recast the place of aesthetics in the production and consumption of American literature. Contributors showcase the interpretive possibilities available to those who bring politics, culture, ideology, conceptions of identity into their critiques, combining close readings of individual works with authors with theoretical discussions.

Aesthetics, Disinterestedness, and Effectiveness in Political Art Maria-Alina Asavei, 2018-09-15 Should politically concerned and engaged artistic production disregard questions or requirements of aesthetic reception and value? Whether art should be aesthetic or political is not a new question. Therefore, in spite of those several contemporary approaches to this issue, the answer is not set in stone and the debate is still going on. This volume aims to broaden these debates and it stems from numerous conversations with politically engaged artists and artist collectives on issues related to the aesthetization of politics versus the politicization of art, as well as the phenomenon of the so-called unhealthy aestheticism in political art. Thus, this study has three interrelated aims. Firstly, it aims to offer an interdisciplinary account of the relationship between art and politics and between aesthetics and the political. Secondly, it attempts to explore what exactly makes artistic production a strong yet neglected field of political critique when democratic political agency, history from below, and identity politics are threatened. Finally, to illuminate the relationship between critical political theory on the one hand and the philosophy of art on the other by highlighting artworks moral political and epistemic abilities to reveal criticize problematize and intervene politically in our political reality

A Hunger for Aesthetics Michael Kelly, 2012 This title examines the motivations for the critiques that have been applied to the idea of aesthetics and argues that theorists and artists now hunger for a new kind of aesthetics one better calibrated to contemporary art and its moral and political demands The book shows how for decades aesthetic critiques have often concerned art's treatment of beauty or the autonomy of art Collectively these critiques have generated an anti aesthetic stance that is now prevalent in the contemporary art world

Feminist Aesthetics and the Politics of Modernism Ewa Płonowska Ziarek, 2012 Ewa Ziarek fully articulates a feminist aesthetics focusing on the struggle for freedom in women's literary and political modernism and the devastating impact of racist violence and sexism She examines the contradiction between women's transformative literary and political practices and the oppressive realities of racist violence and sexism and she situates these tensions within the entrenched opposition between revolt and melancholia in studies of modernity and within the friction between material injuries and experimental aesthetic forms Ziarek's political and aesthetic investigations concern the exclusion and destruction of women in politics and literary production and the transformation of this oppression into the inaugural possibilities of writing and action Her study is one of the first to combine an in depth engagement with philosophical aesthetics especially the work of Theodor W Adorno with women's literary modernism particularly the writing of Virginia Woolf and Nella Larsen along with feminist theories on the politics of race and gender By bringing seemingly apolitical gender neutral debates about modernism's experimental forms together with an analysis of violence and destroyed materialities Ziarek challenges both the anti aesthetic subordination of modern literature to its political uses and the appreciation of art's emancipatory potential at the expense of feminist and anti racist political struggles

American Multiculturalism in Context Sāmi Ludwig, 2017-03-07 In March 2015 a group of experts from four continents and a wide range of disciplines met with the leading African American writer Ishmael Reed in Mulhouse France and Basel Switzerland Guided by Swiss cultural and literary theorist Sāmi Ludwig and deliberately migrating back and forth across a political border in the heart of Europe they not only listened to Reed and discussed his work but also looked more widely at the different meanings assigned to multiculturalism in the United States Europe and other parts of the world This volume brings together their reflections

Political Aesthetics Arundhati Virmani, 2015-09-07 Political Aesthetics highlights the complex and ambiguous connections of aesthetics with social cultural and political experiences in contemporary societies If today aesthetics seems a rather overused term mixing a variety of historical realities and complex personal states of being its relevance as a connecting agent between individual state and society is stronger than ever The actual context of political and economic crisis generates new relations between official imposed aesthetics and the resistance and critiques they trigger Considered beyond the poles of power and protest the book examines how traditional or innovative artistic practices may acquire unexpected capacities of subversion It nourishes the current debate around the new political stakes of aesthetics as an inviolable right of ordinary citizens an essential element of empowerment and agency in a democratic every day It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations political culture and political aesthetics as well as critical sociology and history It will also be useful for some broad courses in media studies cultural studies and sociology
