Routledge International Handbook of Feminisms and Gender Studies Anália Torres, Paula Campos Pinto, Tamara Shefer, Jeff Hearn, 2024-11-29 This Handbook is an important contribution to the recent history of and contemporary debates on feminist gender and women s studies seen in a global perspective It tackles current developments in the area by examining their multiple configurations in different countries across the world and taking stock of the tensions and controversies that have recently emerged against and within the field The volume brings together essays from renowned feminist and gender studies academics from the Global North and Global South together with early stage emerging scholars The diversity of the geopolitical and disciplinary locations and the quality of their reflections provide rich wide ranging and interdisciplinary discussions that are rarely found in similar collections making this an essential resource for advanced students and academics in the field

BEYOND OUR IMAGINATIONS Simi Afonja, 2022-06-17 Beyond our Imaginations African Women s Realities is the product of dialogues on Gender and Feminism in the region of Africa It is the first in the series Feminism Visions of Society The book provides a balanced review of Western and West African theories and of participatory methodologies paying particular attention to the exclusion of grassroots feminism from the growing body of knowledge and action It builds on existing essentialist theorizing without disregarding the overlaps with feminism in other cultures Cultural knowledge is extended in discussions of grassroots women s loss of power and voice through changing gender images the declining culture of the Deitification of Motherhood Women s Leadership in Modern Markets Female Traditional Rulership and Women s Influence in Community Development and Peace Building This book helps to understand why too often there are gaps between theory and the policies designed to improve African Women s lives There is also a repertoire of qualitative data about feminist practices and strategies at the household level in the workplace and the political domains as part of the patriarchal bargain in African cultures While the collection celebrates the importance of the imagination in building feminist knowledge it takes a more cautionary stand calls for methodological flexibility and sophistication as African scholars expand feminist knowledge The Palgrave Handbook of Critical Menstruation Studies Chris Bobel, Inga T. Winkler, Breanne Fahs, Katie Ann Hasson, Elizabeth Arveda Kissling, Tomi-Ann Roberts, 2020-07-24 This open access handbook the first of its kind provides a comprehensive and carefully curated multidisciplinary and genre spanning view of the state of the field of Critical Menstruation Studies opening up new directions in research and advocacy It is animated by the central question what new lines of inquiry are possible when we center our attention on menstrual health and politics across the life course The chapters diverse in content form and perspective establish Critical Menstruation Studies as a potent lens that reveals complicates and unpacks inequalities across biological social cultural and historical dimensions This handbook is an unmatched resource for researchers policy makers practitioners and activists new to and already familiar with the field as it rapidly develops and expands Routledge Handbook of Queer African Studies S.N. Nyeck, 2019-12-06 This handbook offers diverse perspectives on queer Africa incorporating scholarly contributions on themes that reflect and inflect the trajectories of queer contributions to African studies within and outside academia The Routledge Handbook of Queer African Studies incorporates a range of unique perspectives reflecting ongoing struggles between regimes of inclusion and those of transformation premised upon different relational and reflexive engagements between queer embodiment and Africa's subjectivities All sections of this handbook blend contributions from public intellectuals and practitioners with academic reflections on topics not limited to neoliberalism social care morality and ethics social education and technology through the lens of queer African studies The book renders visible the ongoing transformations and resistance within African societies as well as the inventiveness of queer presence in negotiating belonging This handbook will be of interest to students and scholars of gender and sexuality in Africa queer studies and African culture and society

Nellie Arnott's Writings on Angola, 1905-1913 Sarah Robbins, Ann Ellis Pullen, 2010-11-27 Nellie Arnott's Writing on Angola 1905 1913 recovers and interprets the public texts of a teacher serving at a mission station sponsored by the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions in Portuguese West Africa Along with a collection of her magazine narratives mission reports and correspondence Nellie Arnott's Writing on Angola offers a critical analysis of Arnott's writing about her experiences in Africa including interactions with local Umbundu Christians and about her journey home to the U S when she spent time promoting the mission movement before marrying and settling in California Charting the Range of Black Politics Michael Mitchell, David Covin, 2012 The election of 2008 brought onto the national stage complexities arising when the member of a minority group assumes power over national political institutions It also underlined the limits placed on that power by the double accountability such a figure faces The question posed in this volume of the NPSR is Might the ascendancy of President Obama lead to a deracialization of American politics or its opposite The contributions to this volume examine this question in a variety of ways David Wilson and Khalilah Brown Dean analyze black attitudes towards the candidates for the Democratic Party nomination in the presidential race of 2008 Lorenzo Morris asks how perceptions of race have defined expectations of the African American ambassadors to the United Nations Horace Bartilow and Kihong Eom use a game theoretic approach to examine US drug strategies in the Caribbean A works in progress section follows with personal reflections by Michael C Dawson and Andra Gillespe They relate how personal concerns and curiosities guide their research A book review section provides a discussion about works of interest to scholars studying black politics War, Women and Post-conflict Empowerment Josephine Beoku-Betts, Fredline A. M'Cormack-Hale, 2022-01-13 Since the 1991 2002 civil conflict ended in Sierra Leone the country has failed to translate the accomplishments of women s involvement in bringing the war to an end into meaningful political empowerment This is in marked contrast to other post conflict countries which have increased the political participation of women in elected and appointed office increased the representation of women in leadership positions and enacted constitutional reforms promoting women s rights Written by Sierra Leonean and Africanist scholars and experts from a broad range of disciplines this unique volume analyses the historical and contextual factors influencing women s political economic and social development in the country In drawing on a diverse array of case studies from health to education refugees to international donors the contradictions successes and challenges of women s lives in a post conflict environment are revealed making this an essential book for anyone involved in women and development
