Fyodor Dostoevsky

Animal Farm Centennial Edition:

The Fair Garden and the Swarm of Beasts, Centennial Edition Margaret A. Edwards, 2002-11-08 Edwards's philosophies and practices as illustrated in The Fair Garden and the Swarm of Beasts have influenced and inspired generations of librarians since its original publication in 1969 and continue to be a foundation for today's new young adult librarians.

Notes from Underground, the Grand Inquisitor Fyodor Dostoevsky, 2003-11-07 The connection between these works is unmistakable as is their direct relation to Dostoevsky's life: sensational, harrowing, and frenzied.

From the Introduction by Ralph E. Matlow

The Graphic Canon, Vol. 3 Russ Kick, 2019-06-18 NOW A NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Publisher's Weekly Best Summer Books of 2013 The Daily Beast's Brainy Summer Beach Reads The classic literary canon meets the comics artists, illustrators, and other artists who have remade reading in Russ Kick's magisterial three-volume full-color The Graphic Canon volumes 1, 2, and 3. Volume 3 brings to life the literature of the end of the 20th century and the start of the 21st, including a Sherlock Holmes mystery, an H.G. Wells story, an illustrated guide to the Beat writers, a one-act play from Zora Neale Hurston, a disturbing meditation on Naked Lunch, Rilke's soul-stirring Letters to a Young Poet, Anaïs Nin's diaries, the visions of Black Elk, the heroin classic The Man With the Golden Arm (published four years before William Burroughs' Junky and the postmodernism of Thomas Pynchon, David Foster Wallace, Kathy Acker, Raymond Carver, and Donald Barthelme). The towering works of modernism are here: T.S. Eliot's The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock and The Waste Land; Yeats's The Second Coming, done as a magazine spread; Heart of Darkness; stories from Kafka; The Voyage Out by Virginia Woolf; James Joyce's masterpiece Ulysses and his short story Araby from Dubliners; rare early work from Faulkner and Hemingway by artists who have drawn for Marvel; and poems by Gertrude Stein and Edna St. Vincent Millay. You'll also find original comic versions of short stories by W. Somerset Maugham, Flannery O'Connor, and Saki; manga style plus adaptations of Lolita and everyone said it couldn't be done The Age of Innocence; Siddhartha; and Steppenwolf by Hermann Hesse; The Negro Speaks of Rivers by Langston Hughes; One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest; Last Exit to Brooklyn; J.G. Ballard's Crash; and photo dioramas for Animal Farm and The Wonderful Wizard of Oz. Feast your eyes on new full-page illustrations for 1984's Brave New World; Waiting for Godot; One Hundred Years of Solitude; The Bell Jar; On the Road; Lord of the Flies; The Wind-Up Bird Chronicle; and three Borges stories. Robert Crumb's rarely seen adaptation of Nausea captures Sartre's existential dread. Dame Darcy illustrates Cormac McCarthy's masterpiece Blood Meridian, universally considered one of the most brutal novels ever written and long regarded as unfilmable by Hollywood. Tara Seibel, the only female artist involved with the Harvey Pekar Project, turns in an exquisite series of illustrations for The Great Gatsby. And then there's the moment we've been waiting for: the first graphic adaptation from Kurt Vonnegut's masterwork Slaughterhouse-Five. Among many other gems.

Money, Power, and Elections Rodney A. Smith, 2014-04-07 Have campaign finance reform laws actually worked Is money less influential in electing candidates today than it was thirty years ago when legislation was first enacted Absolutely not argues Rodney A Smith in this passionately written fact filled and provocative book According to Smith the laws have had exactly the opposite of their intended effect They have increased the likelihood that incumbents in the House and Senate will be reelected and they have greatly diminished the chances that candidates who are not wealthy will be elected Smith s claims are supported by convincing data he collected and analyzed information about all federal elections since 1920 These data show clearly that money matters now more than ever Smith thinks that reform legislation has created a new inequality for candidates that if left unchecked threatens to destroy the American electoral process by obliterating the foundational principle of free speech He argues that money buys speech and when candidates lack money to buy media time and space they are effectively silenced Their inability to speak freely violates the most significant intentions of our nation s founders that a sovereign citizenry elect its own leaders based on a free exchange of ideas For Smith campaign finance reform has unwittingly unbalanced the checks and balances created by the Framers of the Constitution After presenting a detailed historical overview of how we have reached the present crisis Smith proposes a simple solution institute a process that completely discloses relevant information about campaign donors and recipients of donations All disclosures would be available to the media which would be able to investigate and report them fully Only then Smith believes will the United States have the opportunity to be the democratic republic that its founders intended

In Secrecy's Shadow Simon Willmetts, 2016-04-08 During the Second World War hundreds of Hollywood filmmakers under the command of the legendary director John Ford enlisted in the OSS to produce training reconnaissance and propaganda films This wartime bond continued into the post war period when a number of studios produced films advocating the creation of a permanent peacetime successor to the OSS what became the Central Intelligence Agency By the 1960s however Hollywood s increasingly irreverent attitude towards the CIA reflected a growing public anxiety about excessive US government secrecy In Secrecy s Shadow provides the first comprehensive history of the birth and development of Hollywood s relationship with American intelligence It takes an interdisciplinary approach synthesizing literatures and methodologies from diplomatic history film studies and cultural theory and it presents new perspectives on a number of major filmmakers including Darryl F Zanuck Alfred Hitchcock and John Ford Based on research conducted in over 20 archival repositories across the United States and UK In Secrecy's Shadow explores the revolution in the relationship between Hollywood and the secret state from unwavering trust and cooperation to extreme scepticism and paranoia and demonstrates the debilitating effects of secrecy upon public trust in government and the stability of national memory

Animals in Literary Education
John Drew, 2025-09-24 This book examines the complicated place of animals in literary analysis and education and shows how an ethically engaged approach to animals representation could be pursued to challenge anthropocentrism and cultivate multispecies empathy Other species are represented in the literary education canon including farmed animals Yet the animals are typically anthropomorphized to guide students toward humanist readings and away from consideration of animals experiences or subjectivities This reproduces the idea that animals are mere objects meant to be exploited for human purposes even metaphorical and educational ones John Drew develops the term anthro allegory to capture and critique the process through which students are taught to read animal literary representations exclusively as symbolic analogues for humans and human themes The concept serves as an analytical lens for critically interrogating significant texts taught across educational levels and exposing the deeply engrained educational anthropocentrism that silences animal issues even when animals are represented Crucially Drew identifies texts and pedagogical strategies that can help cultivate a literary educational animal ethic that simultaneously encourages analytical rigour and multispecies concern
